MINUTES

OF THE

FIFTY-THIRD ANNUAL CONVENTION

OF THE

AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY,

Held at Detroit, Mich., Oct. 16-22, 1903.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 17.—EVENING.

The fifty-fourth annual Convention of the American Christian Missionary Society met in the Woodward Avenue Baptist Church, Detroit, Mich., Saturday evening, Oct. 17, 1903, A. B. Philputt, of Indiana, presiding.

Frank G. Tyrrell, of Missouri, addressed the Convention on the "Twentieth Century Crusaders."

Oliver W. Stewart, of Illinois, delivered an address on "The Greatest Governmental Problem."

An overflow meeting was held in the Central M. E. Church addressed by the same speakers.

The President appointed the following committees:

Committee on Resolutions.—F. W. Norton, Indiana; J. H. Hardin, New England; Mrs. A. M. Harrison, Ky.

Committee on Place of Next Meeting.—J. H. Gilliland, Illinois; Sidney H. Thompson, Missouri; B. H. Lingenfelter, Washington; W. E. Garrison, Missouri; T. J. Clark, Indiana.

Committee on Christian Endeavor.—J. H. Goldner, Ohio; W. W. Sniff, Indiana; H. C. Kendrick, Indiana; W. B. Taylor, Michigan; G. P. Rutledge. Pennsylvania.

Committee on Exhibit at Louisiana Purchase Exposition.—J. H. Garrison, Missouri; R. A. Long, Missouri; H. E. Udell, Missouri.

Committee on Nominations.—W. J. Russell, Pennsylvania; H. H. Harmon, Indiana; M. E. Harlan, New York; O. P. Spiegel, Louisiana; A. E. Dubber, Kansas.

Committee on Order of Business.—C. J. Tannar, Michigan; Benj. L. Smith, Ohio.

Adjourned with prayer.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 20.—MORNING.

P. H. Welsheimer, of Ohio, conducted a praise service at 9 A. M.

R. P. Shepherd, of New Jersey, delivered an address on "The Will of God Concerning America."

G. W. Muckley presented the report of the Board of Church Extension. On motion, it was accepted. (A copy of this report can be had by addressing Geo. W. Muckley, Water Works Bldg., Kansas City, Mo.)

The report of the Acting Board of Managers of the American Christian Missionary Society was presented by the Corresponding Secretary, Benjamin L. Smith. On motion it was accepted. Following is the report:

FIFTY-THIRD ANNUAL REPORT OF THE ACTING BOARD OF MANAGERS.

With grateful hearts toward the Father of all mercies, we express our thanks to the Lord of the harvest for the most bountiful spiritual harvest he has ever given us. We thank him for the enlarged offerings for this work of Home Missions; we praise him that the lives and the health of our missionaries have been precious in his sight; we bless him that the work and spirit of missons is finding more and more a ready hearing and a hearty response in the hearts of his people.

Before beginning the review of the year the Board desires to briefly reiterate its work and relations. The Acting Board of Managers is simply a committee appointed by our National Convention to act as the agent of those who desire to work through this organization, and thus co-operate for the special purpose of preaching the gospel of the New Testament throughout the United States and Canada. The Acting Board has no other authority nor function. Its service consists in presenting to our brotherhood the various fields of work; the ripe harvest for missionary effort; in gathering the offerings of the brotherhood for the work of evangelization; in helping plant the cause of primitive Christianity in places where our brethren are few and weak; in sending out evangelists to plant this cause in new places, and in nourishing the newly organized congregations until they become strong enough to walk alone.

Your Acting Board tries to administer this great trust as those who must give an account to God and the brotherhood.

Ere we enter upon the report we would pause a moment, and speak of those who have anticipated us and

ENTERED INTO REST.

California presents in memorial the name of T. D. Garvin, a faithful minister in Ohio, Hawaii and California—"having served his own generation, by the will of God fell on sleep" at Los Angeles, August, 1903. He was a Life Director of the American Christian Missionary Society.

Maryland tells of the loss of Alexander Newcomer, the blind disciple, who read God's book by his finger-tips. He was a very intelligent disciple, who, by having books, papers and magazines read to him, kept himself fully in touch with the times He died suddenly two days before the dedication of the new church at Beaver Creek. His funeral was the first service in the new house, but his glorified eyes have seen that house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

Indiana tells of the early going home of E. F. Mahan, the talented minister of the church at Shelbyville. He had accepted the invitation of the First Church at Portland, Ore., to become its minister Jan. 1, 1904. He was to have occupied a place on the program of the Foreign Society, but God needed him, and he has passed on before. Indiana also mourns the departure of A. F. Armstrong, of Kokomo—a lover of God's cause and a Life Director of the Society.

We mourn with the Board of Ministerial Relief over the loss of John B. McCleary, who, at our Omaha Convention, accepted the work of Secretary of Ministerial Relief, and, on account of his pay as retired chaplain of the United States Army, served the holy cause without salary. The summons came suddenly, and he is at rest.

We mourn with our Christian Woman's Board of Missions over the loss of A. G. Alderman, their splendid missionary, at Monterey, Mexico. To know him, as the writer knew him in former years, was to love him. He was a growing man, cut off in his prime.

Arkansas notes the departure of John B. Marshall at Little Rock. He was a faithful minister of the Word.

California notes the departure of J. W. Knight, recently of Illinois; he was beloved by all who knew him; a faithful minister.

Henry W. Stewart, a graduate of Kentucky University; a very successful preacher of God's word, and one who lived beautifully the Christian life.

The District of Columbia names Ira W. Kimmel to be remembered here. He was pastor of the Whitney Avenue Memorial Church, Washington, D. C.; a man of devotion and very successful in his chosen work. His death was sudden.

Massachusetts tells of the going home of Mrs. Sophia P. Blaisdell, of Worcester. She was an earnest, faithful helper of the Lord's cause, providing by gift and bequest for the furtherance of the gospel after her decease.

Ohio notes the departure of Sister Amos Sutton Hayden, widow of our well-known pioneer; of Daniel Kennedy, the generous, faithful elder of the church at Uhrichsville; of Mrs. Mary Jones, the wife of the venerable Harrison Jones.

James H. Lockwood, of Cincinnati, O., passed from earth during the year. He was in his eighty-second year; he had been minister of the church at Bethel, O., for forty-four years, and preached for them up to the time of his death. He was a member of the General Convention in 1849 that organized the American Christian Missionary Society. Bro. Lockwood was a true, faithful minister of the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Georgia, Kentucky and Virginia all unite in lamenting the departure of Charles P. Williamson. He was a well-known figure in our National Conventions; he presided over our Convention at Dallas, Tex., in 1895—a teacher and preacher, gifted, genial, lovable. His death is a loss to the brotherhood.

Iowa notes the departure of L. Harvuot, of Panora; a supporter of every good work. He built and gave to the brethren of Panora a church house.

Kentucky notes the going home of Wm. F. Parker, of Paris; a true Christian man; an earnest, faithful elder of the church.

Over these, and the other sainted dead of the year, we can pronounce the eulogy of God's word: "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them."

OUR REPORT.

In obedience to the mandate of the Constitution, your Acting Board of Managers herewith respectfully submits the fifty-third annual report of its work.

During the year we have assisted, either directly or jointly with State Boards, in the support of 339 missionaries, an increase of sixty-five over last year. These missionaries have visited and assisted 1,459 places; have organized or reorganized 121 churches; have received into the various churches 14,814 members, of which number 6,951 were by confession of faith in Christ as the divine Son of God and baptism into his name.

In addition to the above, we have State Boards of Missions in thirty-nine States. The summary of their work is:

WORK BY STATE BOARDS.

Missionaries employed, 498; number churches organized, 177; churches and places helped, 1,970; members received into churches by baptism, 11,585; members received into churches otherwise, 9,093; members received, not classified, 1,442; total, 22,120; amounts collected on fields for local work, $1,418,943.39; amounts collected for State missions, $142,721.37.

TOTALS FOR HOME MISSIONS.

The totals of reports by State and National Boards show the following:

Missionaries employed, 598; number of additions to churches by missionary effort, 25,490; number of churches organized or reorganized, 193; total amount raised for State and National Boards for Home Missions, $244,967.47.

FINANCES.

The total receipts of the Society for all purposes the past year were $102,246.10. This shows a gain in receipts of $19,315.17. This gain is as follows: from churches, $8,900.73; from Sunday-schools, $2,249.41; from annuity funds, $1,580; from interest, $1,206.48.

GROWTH IN GIVING.

The following is the comparative table of receipts for Home Missions:

| | 1901. | 1902. | 1903. |
|---|---|---|---|
| From Churches | $34,881.88 | $39,761.27 | $48,662.00 |
| From Bible-schools | 3,674.54 | 4,647.72 | 6,897.13 |
| From C. E. Societies | 912.93 | 1,119.92 | 858.45 |
| From L. A. and Other Societies | 437.70 | 293.00 | 707.95 |
| From Individuals | 4,406.76 | 4,307.95 | 5,500.66 |
| From Other Sources, Interest and Permanent Funds | 47,402.87 | 32,801.07 | 39,619.91 |
| Total | $91,716.68 | $82,930.93 | $102,246.10 |

There is a total of 2,060 churches that made offerings to our work; 723 Bible-schools have come to our help; 199 Christian Endeavor Societies are helping us win America, their special field being Porto Rico.

Our greatest problem is to reach the non-contributing churches. Many of them are very small, poor, untaught in missions and hard to interest. Your secretary, the assistant secretary, and others, have made special tours among them, but have never collected enough money to pay the expenses of the trip, if a long one. Until there is an increase in intelligence, both in pulpit and field, the work will continue to be unsatisfactory. There should be a united and continued campaign of education to reach, interest and enlist our non-contributing churches.

The grand total of Home Mission work, State and national, is as follows:

|---|---|
| Money raised by National Board | $102,246.10 |
| Money raised by State Boards | 142,721.37 |
| Number missionaries employed | 598 |
| Number baptized by missionaries | 12,931 |
| Number received otherwise | 10,689 |
| Number received (not classified) | 1,870 |
| Whole number members received by missionaries | 25,490 |
| Whole number churches organized by missionaries | 191 |

Boys' and Girls' Rally Day, November 22, 1903.

Our offerings by States are as follows:

This is only a brief survey of the great field in which we are working a little. All about us are vast fields that are untouched by our reapers. In New England there are six and one-half millions of people; we have not yet reached the six millions. In and about Boston there are a million. We have only one church that is simply Christian in all that vast city.

In Greater New York are four millions—three millions and a half have never yet heard the plea for a return to New Testament Christianity. North and east of the Potomac there are sixteen and a half millions of people, of whom fifteen millions have never yet heard our plea for Christian union.

There are vast fields in the North, South and West where the voices of our missionaries have never yet been heard. We have no missionary in Alaska, among the Indians, and among millions of foreigners.

We are trying to preach the gospel to the Germans in Cleveland, but nowhere else; we are trying to preach to the Mexicans in San Antonio, Tex.; we are trying to reach the Scandinavians in Minnesota; beyond lie the millions of our foreign population—a menace, a challenge to our faith. God has brought these great fields to our doors; let us enter.

A COMPARISON.

WE ARE GROWING.

The stars never hasten, never cease; but, with mild persistence, keep on their way. The brotherhood seems determined that the growth of our Home Mission work should be like the progress of the stars—without haste and without halting.

|---|---|
| In 1873 the entire sum raised for missions was..... | $ 4,159.84 |
| State Boards ..... | 21,769.32 |
| Total amount raised for missions in 1873..... | $25,928.16 |

In 1883, after the Christian Woman's Board of Missions and the Foreign Society were organized, we raised:

|---|---|
| For State Missions ..... | $52,367.50 |
| For American Christian Missionary Society ..... | 16,982.33 |
| For Christian Woman's Board of Missions ..... | 10,364.55 |
| For Foreign Christian Missionary Society ..... | 25,504.86 |
| Total for Missions in 1883 ..... | $105,219.24 |

In 1893 our reports show our brethren raised:

|---|---|
| For State Missions ..... | $75,643.50 |
| For American Christian Missionary Society ..... | 22,079.37 |
| For Church Extension ..... | 22,480.79 |
| For Christian Woman's Board of Missions ..... | 51,232.06 |
| For Foreign Christian Missionary Society ..... | 58,355.01 |
| Total for Missions in 1893 ..... | $229,795.73 |

In 1903 we have raised:

|---|---|
| For State Missions ..... | $142,721.37 |
| For American Christian Missionary Society ..... | 102,246.10 |
| For Church Extension ..... | 43,047.10 |
| For Christian Woman's Board of Missions ..... | 147,086.85 |
| For Foreign Christian Missionary Society ..... | 210,008.68 |
| Total for Missions in 1903 ..... | $645,110.10 |

We see in this a healthy growth. We should not be discouraged, neither should we be exalted, for we are yet far, far below our duty in this matter.

Our average for General Home Missions is 10 cents per member.

If we have only a million disciples in this land, our entire gifts for missions only average sixty-four cents per member. Our religious neighbors far excel us in this grace. Let us go forward, on our knees if necessary, but still press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

Your Board wishes to congratulate the Convention and the brotherhood upon the great work that has been done the past year. Not only can we close the missionary year free from debt, but with a balance in the Evangelistic Fund of $769.64, enough to pay the salaries of our missionaries for one week of the new year, or enough to start two or three new missions. The total receipts foot up $102,246.10, which is $19,315.17 more than last year.

A review of the work of Home Missions shows a year of strong and successful work, and it is impossible to give in this brief résumé of the work in the different parts of our land any adequate idea of its magnitude.

In three directions there has been a large movement of population—northwest, southeast and along the Pacific Coast. North Dakota has witnessed a large influx of population; the opening of the Red Lake Reservation has brought a large increase of population there. Here labors A. J. Marshall, the special home missionary of the Central Church of Cincinnati.

Indian Territory and Oklahoma have had a large increase in population, new lines of railroad are being planned or are building, and new towns are being laid out, calling for larger home missionary work.

In Wisconsin we must make a start within the next few years, or lose our opportunity. The State is taking its permanent mould and form, and unless we do larger work within the next five or ten years it will require great expenditure of men and money to ever win an influential place in Wisconsin.

The Pacific Coast is waking to new activity, and all our State Boards—Northern and Southern California, Oregon and Washington—are appealing for increased appropriations.

The work in Porto Rico is in the nature of a harvest already. We should greatly enlarge our force there.

Our foreign population should receive more and more attention. In the year ending July 1, 1901, 488,000 came; to July 1, 1902, the number reached 648,743; and to July 1, 1903, 857,046. This promises to be the greatest year in our history, in regard to the number of foreigners landing on our shores. No fewer than 50,510 Roman Catholics landed at New York in July, 1903. These figures are taken from the official reports of F. P. Sargent, U. S. Commissioner of Immigration. These foreigners are scattered from ocean to ocean, but are prone to congregate in the cities.

Christian patriotism and Christian philanthropy both place the burden upon the church to-day to reach them with the pure gospel, so that their coming may not tend to lower the moral, social and religious standards which are our glory and our protection. We have not done our share of work among them, and should awake to our privilege and our obligation.

Many of our large cities present as large a foreign mission field, and certainly as available and as pressing as one finds anywhere upon this earth. If America is not to repeat the sad history of other countries of the past, all classes of men must be reached and their lives be made subject to the law of Jesus Christ and the gospel.

MISSIONARY EDUCATION.

The AMERICAN HOME MISSIONARY is our monthly magazine, one issue carrying the Report and Minutes of our National Convention; another issue carrying the Year Book, and the others devoted to the work of Home Missions. The issue is 8,500 copies monthly, and the price is 25 cents per year—a nominal price for a storehouse of home missionary literature. Geo. B. Ranshaw, our assistant secretary, has given himself especially to the work of editing the AMERICAN HOME MISSIONARY. We are indebted to him for the improvement seen in this magazine.

In order to meet the demand for an inexpensive home missionary paper, we have maintained the publication of OUR HOME FIELD, a four-page quarterly. The subscription price is 10 cents a year—in clubs of five or more, 5 cents a year. We hope to greatly increase our subscription list, and in this way increase the growing interest in the evangelization of our home land.

TRACTS AND LEAFLETS.

The Society publishes leaflets giving condensed information on various phases of Home Mission work. The list is as follows:

CHARLOTTETOWN.—We have continued to help the church at Charlottetown, P. E. I., of which R. W. Stevenson is minister. The growth has been slow but substantial.

NOVA SCOTIA.

PICTOU.—We continue our work in Nova Scotia. F. J. M. Appleman reports two evangelistic meetings at Pictou during the year: the first by J. W. Robbins, resulting in twenty-four additions; the second by W. J. Wright, resulting in one addition. Bro. Appleman says: "While we had only one confession, we feel that this meeting was fully as successful as the first. The gospel and plea for unity was put before the people in the most favorable light. The last year has been a prosperous one."

HALIFAX.—We have been helping the Halifax Church for many years, because it is a recruiting station for our churches in New England. Large numbers of our members in the New England churches were formerly members of the Halifax congregation: the nucleus of our new church in Montreal came from Halifax, while large numbers are baptized at Halifax; the frequent removals have kept the membership down. R. E. Stevens is the faithful minister.

We are helping the Board of Co-operation of Ontario, Canada. The special work has been the church at Hamilton. It is growing slowly into self-support. The work in Ontario is prospering. The report shows that our cause is taking deep root.

QUEBEC.

MONTREAL.—Last year we determined to assist the feeble band of brethren plant the cause at Montreal. After a long time we found a suitable man in F. C. Ford. A church was organized, and since that time there has been a steady gain. This church meets in a hired hall; its large success requires a meeting-place, and in a city like Montreal a building-lot is very costly. If only a church home were secured, the future would be assured.

ONTARIO.

We continue our support of the Ontario work. Amos Tovell, the State evangelist, reports thirteen missionaries employed, 224 baptisms and 46 additions otherwise during the year.

RAT PORTAGE.—"Rainy River District is the western division of Ontario, in Canada. Rat Portage is the largest and most important town of this district. Four years ago, a church was organized here by J. K. Hester. Joseph Keevil labored here three years and greatly built up the church. Eight have been added, the past year—four by baptism—and the cause is on a firmer basis than it has ever been. Outlook is encouraging. Rat Portage is the gateway to all this region, and it is important for our cause in all the Rainy River District that we have a strong church here. Bro. M. P. Hayden is planning to start churches in several contiguous towns this fall, with the help of F. L. Read.

MANITOBA.

Alex. McMillan has represented our Board in this growing metropolis of the Canadian Northwest for the past year. He reports:

"WINNIPEG.—In this rapidly growing city of 60,000 people we have been able, by the aid of the American Christian Missionary Society, to build up, within a year, a church of thirty-eight members, with a good church house, in good financial condition. Ours is a position of limited means and limitless opportunities. We ought to have two missions and a school for preachers in this city right now, and many missions and at least one evangelist working in the country. At one place in Alberta Territory a sister has been maintaining a Sunday-school for four years. The Methodists have now taken up this work which we neglected, and sent in a preacher. There are mighty things to do here, and the time to begin them has come."

NEW ENGLAND.

Your Board united with the Board of New England and the Christian Woman's Board of Missions in supporting J. H. Hardin as general evangelist. He is supported in part by the John Reed Memorial Fund. His report is as follows:

"March 1, 1903, I began work in this field as an evangelist, under the direction and support jointly of the American Christian Missionary Society, the Christian Woman's Board of Missions and the New England Missionary Society. Meetings of greater or less duration have been held at the following points: Brockton, Boston, Worcester (Highland Street) and Dodge, Mass.; South and North Lubec, Me., and Bridgeport, Conn. Several other points have been visited, and special sermons and addresses given. From March 1 to the close of July, when the vacation allowed me began, I preached 148 sermons. There were thirty-six additions, besides some seventeen brethren and sisters already keeping the ordinances at one of the above points, brought into more compact organization along with those won to Christ during our meeting at that point. The effort has not been to add members so much as to build up the churches visited in spiritual vitality, and to leaven the public mind with the principles of our great plea for Christian union. Tract distribution has been carried on in connection with our meetings, some three thousand copies of leaflets having been put into the hands of the people. At Brockton, Mass., the church was without a pastor, and was led to call J. M. Horn, of Illinois, to that work. He is now settled with them and they feel that in securing him they have been singularly fortunate. Audiences are increasing, the prayer-meetings are large and edifying, the Sunday-school is growing, and additions are beginning to be won. It has been my aim to strengthen the things that remained, to set in order the things that were wanting, and to sow the good seed of the kingdom beside all waters. I am deeply conscious of how far the visible results obtained fall short of what we all would like to see. At the same time I am conscious of having done the best I could under the conditions existing. Deploring more than I can express, my own shortcomings, I can take hope only in the expectation of seeing the Word which I have preached, come to ripeness after awhile, to gladden the heart of some other reaper who may not even know of the sower who went before him.

"These few months have given me to see as never before the greatness and destitution of this New England field. Here we have a population of about 6,000,000 with only nineteen of our churches. Nearly all of these are small in numbers and weak financially. We have many single counties, in Missouri, Illinois, Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky, that have each more members, ministers and money than are in all of these six States put together. The pioneers went West with their message, and the East was left with only here and there a voice raised for the primitive gospel. It will not do to longer neglect New England. Here are two universities and many colleges, schools of art, technological institutions, etc., of world-wide celebrity and power. Here our young men and women come in large numbers for knowledge and training. They ought to receive their education in the midst of the free and yet restraining atmosphere of pure, simple, New Testament Christianity. Here are the historic foundations of the republic. These deserve to have as ideals for the strong and beautiful superstructure being built upon them the immortal principles of truth as set forth alone in the simple gospel of our divine Lord. Unitarianism has honeycombed New England with doubt, and the creed-bound churches and ministers have been unable to check its progress. The public mind is ripe for our plea. In nearly every community, people are found who stand substantially on the same ground we occupy, not knowing, often, of such a people as the Disciples of Christ. Instead of one evangelist, we ought to have a dozen put to work at once. We ought, without delay, to open work in at least half a dozen large places where we now have no churches. A wise, experienced and worthy man ought to be appointed superintendent of missions for New England, devoting all of his time to the development of our cause in these States; both assisting in the work of other missions and pastors, and doing missionary work himself as opportunity affords. His headquarters ought to be in Boston, and he ought to control a distributing office for our publications, particularly our missionary literature. Instead of $1,000, the American Christian Missionary Society ought next year to appropriate $10,000 for New England; and this Convention ought to set on foot measures that will secure from the churches sufficient money to justify this appropriation. With adequate financial assistance, and the moral support of our great brotherhood, our plea can be made as effective in New England as in any spot on earth."

In addition to this, we are helping the New England Board in all their work.

G. A. Reinl, corresponding secretary, writes:

"By the assistance of the American Christian Missionary Society, we have been enabled to aid in the support of seven missionary pastors during the past year, and to employ Bro. J. H. Hardin as New England evangelist since March 1, 1903. In the churches supplied by these missionaries there have been ninety additions, or an increase of 23½ per cent., while in all New England there have been 231 additions, or a total increase during the year of about 11 per cent. The above surely proves that something is being done, and that the Home Society has not invested its money unwisely.

"There is not a better field for the primitive gospel in all the United States than New England. For years the people have been fed upon a doubtful gospel, until to-day they are tired and weary. They long for the truth. They hunger for the gospel. They want something positive. The preachers of the denominations complain because of the smallness of the attendance of their churches, but let them speak out with no uncertain sound and let them preach the truth, and they will never have reason to complain. People will listen to the gospel. They will come out in large numbers to hear the truth from a man who knows in whom he believes. Our own experience teaches us that. Would that our Western brethren could see the need and the opportunity in New England, and then come over and help us."

NEW YORK.

Your Board has increased its appropriation to the New York State Board of Missions.

BROOKLYN.—J. Lem Keevil reports Brooklyn in prosperous condition. He resigns to pursue his studies, and is succeeded by his brother, Jos. W. Keevil. They report $500 and interest paid on Brooklyn Church indebtedness, steady strides forward, meetings thrice on Lord's Day, one service in open air. "They are never tired of thanking the Home Missionary Society for sending us help and encouragement."

ELMIRA.—C. C. Crawford reports twenty-five additions at Elmira. The adoption of the tithing system has enabled the church to enter a larger field of usefulness. Bro. Crawford has held meetings in Sylvania, Pa., resulting in seven additions, and in Scio, N. Y., with nine additions. He has also revived the work at West Side, and, with Bro. H. J. Otto as his assistant, is carrying the work forward.

We have also been helping NORTH TROY. This work is under the efficient care of C. C. Waite. This mission is now four years old, and in one more year is expected to walk alone. Bro. Waite reports thirteen additions during the year, and $1,211.43 raised for all purposes.

We have also assisted PITTSTOWN. This is a little church, the former home of Dr. W. A. Belding and Miss Sarah Sherman, who left a substantial bequest to the Society. It was once strong, and has become weakened by deaths and removals—its weakness is its plea. Leslie Moody was its minister. During the year he was succeeded by W. E. Wheeler. The reports are encouraging.

NEW JERSEY.

EAST ORANGE.—The church at East Orange, under the efficient leadership of R. P. Shepherd, will assume self-support November 1. It is a star in the crown of our King; a child of missionary work that would not to-day be in existence but for the timely aid of this Society and the Board of Church Extension. We call special attention to R. P. Shepherd's model report:

"The church at East Orange is peculiarly a child of the American Christian Missionary Society and its Church Extension Board. It has cost the brotherhood $2,400 in three years. It has paid back two-fifths of its loan of $3,350 from the Board of Church Extension; it has paid its interest charges and all other bills promptly. It has given to missions regularly, from its earliest inception, and has paid back in missionary offerings over $700. It has had its chapel twenty-eight months. During this time there have been thirty-five baptisms, nineteen additions by letter and statement, twelve lost by death and removal, and a gross increase of 200 per cent., a net gain of 150 per cent. During the past year, without counting the contribution of the American Christian Missionary Society, the church gave for all purposes, $2,238.78. The opportunity which has been made possible for us by the missionary zeal of our great brotherhood and the unfailing Christian oversight and encouragement of the Acting Board of the American Christian Missionary Society, is most gratefully acknowledged by the church at East Orange, and only the fruitage of coming years can testify to their earnest zeal in passing on to others the gracious fellowship they have received from you as servants and disciples of Christ.

WEST VIRGINIA.

A. Linkletter, in his report, says: "The work of the past year in West Virginia has been exceedingly prosperous. At all places where the General Board has been helping pastors, there have been additions by baptism and otherwise. Morgantown, Martinsburg, Charleston and Parkersburg have had over 100 converts. The work in the Elkhorn District is needing a preacher, and we hope to see one there before long. About 252 additions have come as the result of your grants in our State."

P. P. Hasselvander, the faithful minister at Martinsburg, reports steady progress in that difficult field. Just now the work in these regions is of the pioneer character, which, if faithfully supported, will result in the splendid harvests that have followed like labors in Kentucky, Ohio and other older States. The aid of the American Christian Missionary Society is gratefully appreciated by our faithful brethren in West Virginia. We are willing and anxious to do more for the establishment of the New Testament faith in this historic State.

RONCEVERTE.—Milton H. H. Lee writes: "Ronceverte is on the C. & O. R. R. about midway between Hinton, W. Va., and Clifton Forge, Va., about forty miles from either place. These are the nearest points where our own work is being sustained. The $200 contributed here by the Board this year will enable us to do some needful work which we could not otherwise do. This is not a mission point, and in a few months will assume entire support. It was run down, and had to have some help until built up.

"We hope to be the chief instrument in building a church about fourteen miles from here, where there are now quite a number of influential Disciples."

PARKERSBURG.—The help given by the Home Board to the church at Parkersburg has inspired the brethren to greater things. The church debt has been reduced, current expenses met, and missionary offerings increased. Sixty-one accessions are reported for the year. J. D. Hull, the minister, writes that every department of church work has advanced during the yea

VIRGINIA.

Your Board has continued our aid to the Virginia State Board. H. C. Combs, the State evangelist, reports six new churches organized, 566 baptisms, and 234 added otherwise through missionaries under the joint support of the State and National Boards. Eleven missionaries have been employed and eight places helped. We can cheerfully report the work in the Old Dominion as in the most flattering condition. H. C. Combs is splendidly adapted to this field, and meeting with loyal support.

MARYLAND.

Your Board has increased its appropriation to the State Board of Maryland. J. A. Hopkins is the State evangelist. His report is as follows:

"The results of our work in the past year have not been all that we could wish, but a vacancy for some months in the pastorate of one of our missions, and other circumstances, have deterred our work somewhat. The pastorate has been supplied, and we hope for progress at that point. With the help of the American Society we are fostering a mission that was recently opened in Waynesboro, Pa., near the borders of Maryland. Our missionaries have reported a number of baptisms, and other additions.

"The conditions of our field are such that missions can be planted in the East by hard work, as in the West. There are certain religious conditions peculiar to certain sections. One condition with us is that Baltimore and Washington are great Roman Catholic centers, with the influence of Cardinal Gibbons, the greatest American prelate, in one city, and the Catholic University in the other. There are sections in the Cumberland Valley and near-by territory where there are many German Baptist brethren, commonly called Dunkards. Some of them are growing out of their custom of plain dress, and some of the young people are disposed to become Disciples, as they see in our plea loyalty to the Word, combined with the liberty of the gospel.

"We expect the fifth church in Washington to be realized in 1904.

"More men are badly needed. Three vacancies must be supplied. We need men to open new missions, but can not support them without money. We have, as yet, but one church in Delaware. There is room for more churches in the District of Columbia. We have but six churches in Baltimore with its half-million people. We have no churches in the Capital of Maryland. There are sixteen counties out of the twenty-three where we have no church of Disciples, and twenty-one county-seats are destitute of such an organization. In the twenty-five years of our organized mission work, we have gained 197 per cent. in the number of members, and over 200 per cent. in the preaching forces. We need an increase of workers a thousand-fold, then we may do great things for God."

In addition we have been helping

HUNTINGTON AVENUE, BALTIMORE.—Flournoy Payne has been the missionary. His work was made very difficult by the factional spirit manifested by his predecessor, John Troy, who tried to organize a rival church, but Bro. Payne has wrought carefully and faithfully. He reports as follows:

"When I began work here, there were about thirty members of the mission, and about twenty-five of these were really members of the Calhoun Street Church. We have had not phenomenal, but steady, growth. We count at least forty added since my coming in January of 1902. As we have gained these, many of the Calhoun Street members have returned to their former church home, so that our successes have not given the stimulus they otherwise should have done. But among our new members are a number who help to give standing and solidity to the church. In the past few weeks there have been five additions from the Baptists. They are all good people, highly valued in the church from which they came. One of them is a preacher and a tireless mission and slum worker. From our new members we have chosen officers who have the confidence of all.

"Our Sunday-school has doubled within the year. A Christian Endeavor Society of fifteen members has recently been organized, and it is doing good work. Our little local paper has served the double purpose of a bulletin and a tract, going into many homes which we do not enter in person. People regard us as a live little congregation. The people are hopeful. It is against their unanimous protest that I expect to leave this autumn. My relations with the American Christian Missionary Society have been pleasant in every way. I pray God's blessing upon this and all their other missions."

We have also assisted, through the F. M. Drake Memorial Fund,

FULTON AVENUE, BALTIMORE.—Milton H. H. Lee was pastor of this church for several years. He recently resigned to take charge of the church at Ronceverte, W. Va. We have not yet found the successor of Bro. Lee for Fulton Avenue.

W. J. WRIGHT'S WORK.

W. J. Wright is general evangelist of the East. His district extends from the Potomac to the Hudson River. He has been earnest, diligent, faithful in his work. His report is as follows:

"As waits and wastes the great wheat crop in Western States for the lack of men to harvest it, so waits the great human harvest in Eastern cities, and the laborers are few. One hundred and four railroad towns of above a thousand souls each, some of them from 50,000 to 100,000, in New York alone, where there is none to reprove division and lead toward unity! New York City, with a half-dozen organizations of Disciples among her three and a half million souls; New England, with twenty-three organized congregations of Disciples and scores of large cities in which we have not one man to set forth the simplicity that is in Christ Jesus; New Jersey, whose northern and western portions are filled with great cities, up to 250,000 souls, and two Christian Churches in her borders; Pennsylvania, with fifty-one cities of 10,000 or more, in which we have no church; one church in Delaware; uncounted towns in Maryland in which we have never preached a sermon; 268 houses abandoned by the other religious bodies in one of these States; more than 100 villages in the same State in which there is no church of any kind, and no preaching of the gospel. Room for scores more of churches simply Christian in the great cities where we have started. This is a weak and imperfect picture of our opportunities in the East.

"'God give us men! A time like this demands
Great hearts, clear heads, true faith and ready hands!'

"The fruitfulness of this great field is illustrated by mention of my work in a few places during the year:

"At Lansdowne, Md., where the way had been prepared by Bro. J. B. De Hoff, my meeting held for the Methodists, and in their house, resulted in the entire organization of the church, together with the societies, Sunday-school and property, coming into this great movement to restore primitive Christianity.

"Assistance rendered Joseph Keevil in Gloversville, N. Y., resulted in nearly doubling the membership of the church and Sunday-school, and resulted in a loan of $2,200 being granted by the Board of Church Extension. That means to stay out of the old third-floor hall where few persons knew about us or would climb to hear us, and have a splendid chapel on one of the best lots in the city, so situated that our light can not be hid, and where hundreds of strangers during our meeting heard the old story, in the oldest way, and expressed their sympathy with those who thus tell it.

"While at this place, we learned of a strong church which we once had in Amsterdam, a place of 25,000, but which had ceased to meet. The attention of the New York State evangelist was called to the place, and preliminary steps have been taken to revive the work in this important town.

"One of my best meetings during the year was at Greenpoint, in New York City. It speaks volumes for the fruitfulness of this Eastern field to state that in this great city the people heard our message with ready hearts, and some sixty of them turned to the Lord. The Sunday-school and all the arms of this church were greatly strengthened; the building was remodeled and enlarged to nearly double its former seating capacity. This mission, filled with zeal and hope and with a great future before it, is left in the hands of that tactful, resourceful, successful minister, J. Lem Keevil.

"Such results, and better, can be had in hundreds of places in the East if the brotherhood will but put at the command of the Home Society the money with which to carry on the work.

"Our needs are most urgent, and are threefold: We need the prayers of the great body of Disciples that the Lord will thrust out laborers sufficient both in quantity and quality, and that the Master will direct their work. Our spirits will be quickened, our capacity to labor, enlarged, and our ingathering be multiplied when we are sustained and inspired by the fervent prayers of a host of righteous men.

"Our two other great needs are men and money. In some places we can establish flourishing churches if we can grant but a small appropriation. But the offering made to this great work is so ridiculously insufficient that it will not reach half way, when even a very little is doled out sparingly. In other places the work might be nearly self-sustaining from the beginning if we could secure men of clean lives, good records, education, and willingness to work out of sight for a year or two. We spend months in fruitless searches for the right kind of men to man our missions; we lack flourishing missions or young churches in some of the best towns in the East, only because preachers are unwilling to take up the work after the evangelist and others have spied out the land and opened the way for permanent work. Come over and help us! We need men as much as money.

"During the year I spent about two months in canvassing for funds for the American Christian Missionary Society, and have visited some seventy churches on this mission, have represented the Society at nine conventions or missionary gatherings, at several 'rallies,' and have had many conferences with workers to discuss ways and means. I have held six meetings, organized one new congregation, and have been instrumental in organizing one other; secured and located sixteen preachers with churches or missions; have visited eleven cities and studied conditions, looking toward the establishment of missions. In two of these it is probable that the work will be started before our Convention in Detroit, for word comes to me that Herbert Yeuell, of Uniontown, Pa., is trying to organize the work in Waynesboro, Pa., and at this writing it appears that we have secured a good man to make a church in Wilkesbarre, Pa.

"Other important places wait our coming: Washington, Baltimore, Wilmington, Philadelphia, Trenton, Camden, New Brunswick, Elizabeth, Patterson, Passaic, Atlantic City, Hoboken, all have been commended to our further consideration and help; and we ride through Newark and Jersey City, of 250,000 and 160,000 souls, in shame, because we are unrepresented and unknown in these great centers of wealth, industry and population. How long shall we continue these humiliating conditions?

"Religious conditions in Eastern cities differ widely from those in some cities farther West. Some methods which succeed there fail here; but, on the whole, the difficulties in the East are not more serious or numerous than there, with the exception that in all Western towns and cities we have some members, while in many places in the East we seek and advertise in vain for a single Disciple.

"In the East there is but little feeling against us, and the disposition is to give us a fair chance to deliver our message. It falls into prepared hearts in every community, and where we can start in a way which commands respect, we make great progress. Our poverty is our worst enemy along the Atlantic seaboard.

"To the Father all gracious, I return thanks for care and blessing beyond all my deserts. I have not had a day's illness or an accident of any kind in the year; the brethren everywhere have been kind and helpful in countless ways; the corresponding secretary and the American Christian Missionary Society Board have made it pleasant to work for and with them, while my work has been fruitful beyond all my sober expectations. I thank God and take courage as I face one more year's work for Jesus in connection with the American Christian Missionary Society."

EASTERN PENNSYLVANIA.

In eastern Pennsylvania we are supporting Harrisburg, Altoona, Reading and Wilkesbarre. We are helping as our treasury permits.

WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA.

We unite with western Pennsylvania in supporting F. A. Bright as evangelist of western Pennsylvania. He is supported in part by the Margaret Oliver Memorial Fund. J. A. Joyce, corresponding secretary, reports:

"The Western Pennsylvania Christian Missionary Society has given financial support to twelve mission points during the year, and the missionaries report additions in total 476. There have been dedicated in the district, during the year, seven church houses—Johnstown Second, Washington Second, Monessen, McKees Rocks, Beaver, Dravosburg and Waterford. Organizations were formed at Crafton, Zollarsville, Johnstown Second, Washington Second, Dravosburg, New Kensington, Anita, and a new work started at Cannonsburg.

"Fred A. Bright entered upon the work of evangelist of western Pennsylvania, Sept. 1, 1903, supported jointly by the American Christian Missionary Society and the Western Pennsylvania Christian Missionary Society. A needy field has been waiting for a year until a man could be found, and now there is promise of strengthening and enlarging the work. The work among the Slovak and Hungarian people has been started, and Miss Anna C. Vasicek gives her time as missionary and Bible reader under the Western Pennsylvania Christian Missionary Society. There are ten counties with over one-half million population where there is no organization of the Disciples of Christ. There are fourteen county-seats that have no church. The field is white unto harvest."

PENNSYLVANIA.

PHILADELPHIA.—Almon G. Baker and wife were at work in South Philadelphia in what promises to be a productive field. The Philadelphia Christian Missionary Society is directing the work, and hopes, besides the establishment of the cause here, soon to reach out to Camden, N. J., and Germantown.

NORTH CAROLINA.

The work in the old North State progresses slowly and steadily. L. A. Rightsell, corresponding secretary, reports 530 additions for the year. There are 113 congregations in the State. The entire central portion of the State, and most of the western portion, is still missionary ground. Many of the larger cities are yet to be entered.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

Dr. C. W. Erwin, the corresponding secretary, reports A. T. Fitts, State evangelist, doing faithful and effective work. In addition to the work of the State Board, we are assisting

CHARLESTON.—This work is supported by the Dr. H. Gerould Memorial Fund. E. J. Fenstermacher, the minister, has shown himself a leader; out of difficulties many, not the least of which is the intense conservatism of the city and the poverty of the Disciples of the city, he has led them in the purchase of a desirable lot and the erecting of a new church home. He reports the work as going forward in vigorous purpose. The encouragement of the American Christian Missionary Society has given the congregation prestige, and inspired them to new determination, so that for every dollar invested by the American Christian Missionary Society the church in Charleston raises seven. Bro. Fenstermacher alludes to the increased missionary zeal of the brethren, and says that, in effect, the American Christian Missionary Society has received interest on its cash investment at the rate of 10½ per cent. There is much at stake here. Not only is the life of a single congregation in the balance, but the prestige and good name of our cause throughout that great territory in the South of which Charleston is the metropolis. Charleston is in the transformation period. New capital, modern business methods and a new population are conspiring toward greater things for this most conservative section of the South. We must count ourselves fortunate in being here in readiness to assimilate this new life. Bro. Fenstermacher has this work well in hand, and is devotedly loved by the people.

ALABAMA.

We are still assisting the State Board of Alabama. E. E. Linthicum reports three churches organized during the year, eight places assisted, five missionaries employed, 183 baptisms and eighty-three added otherwise. Considering the feebleness of our folk in Alabama, and the many obstacles, this is an excellent report. Every outlook is promising.

MOBILE.—Mobile has a wonderful future. When the canal across the isthmus is opened, it will be in direct line of communication. We have had a heroic band of brethren there, vainly asking for help. We finally came to their help. The Board of Church Extension aided in securing a choice lot, and your Board recommended Claude E. Hill. We assist in paying his salary. Of the fitness of Bro. Hill, the brethren write in the most enthusiastic terms. His service began the first of June; right through the hot spell he has labored faithfully. He reports twenty-one accessions since July 1. He is warmly supported by the brethren, and the spirit of harmony and aggression warrants the prophecy of speedy self-support.

GEORGIA.

We united with the State Board of Georgia in support of the State work. R. Lin Cave was State evangelist for a part of the year. Last June, he resigned the work to become the missionary pastor of the West End (Atlanta) Church, and was succeeded as State evangelist by W. J. Cocke. S. B. Moore, State president, reports:

"During the year the work has gone forward fairly well. Bro. R. Lin Cave, our State evangelist, having lost his wife by death, was greatly depressed, and decided that it was best for him to locate so as to be more with his family. He therefore gave up the position of State evangelist and became pastor of the West End Church, Atlanta, on June 1. This change has been a hindrance to our work in many ways, but W. J. Cocke, of Virginia, entered upon the work of State Evangelist, September 1, and is making an excellent beginning, assuring us that he is just the man for the place.

"The aid rendered us in Georgia by the American Board enables us to do a work that would otherwise be impossible. We beg the continuance of help as now rendered, except that we would like more at Rome. This is an important place of 12,000 inhabitants, and at present we are able to have preaching there only half time. A man should be in this important center for all his time, and we therefore ask for an increase with that end in view.

"We believe the brotherhood of Georgia is growing, both in spirituality and liberality, and that the outlook for primitive Christianity is bright."

LOUISIANA.

We have only fifteen churches in Louisiana, but we have a faithful band of young preachers. In each State Convention it is the habit to select a point at which to establish the cause during the next missionary year, and vote to hold the convention with the new church the next year. The convention of 1901 voted to establish a church at Jennings and hold the convention of 1902 with the new church at Jennings. In June, 1902, we met in State Convention with the new church at Jennings. And in their own meeting-house, the Jennings Convention voted to establish a church at Baton Rouge, and that the State Convention of 1903 should be held with the church at Baton Rouge. This was done. The Baton Rouge Church voted to establish a new church at Alexandria, and that the convention of 1904 should meet with the new church at Alexandria. We have no doubt it will be done.

John L. Haddock is the evangelist who laid the foundations of the new church at Baton Rouge.

Bro. Haddock, acting under the State Board and the American Christian Missionary Society, held a meeting of many weeks' duration in Baton Rouge. This was a most difficult field. A church constituted by Alexander Campbell had been destroyed by the passion and catastrophe of the Civil War. But few of the members remained. Great prejudice existed, and much opposition hindered the work at first. With the assistance of his wife and Talmage Stanley, Bro. Haddock persisted in preaching the gospel in the face of all discouragements and difficulties.

NEW ORLEANS.—It has been a year of great progress in Louisiana. O. P. Spiegel began work in New Orleans, Dec. 1, 1902. Since that date a new lot has been secured in the best part of the city, a new tabernacle erected, and most of the cost of both has been provided for. Though a weak little congregation, over $2,500 has been raised in cash during the first ten months of the year. There have been nine baptisms and forty-one additions by letter since Bro. Spiegel's advent. The church is not burdened, but assumes its heavy responsibilities with cheerfulness and courage. A new church house is being planned for, and the prospect for the cause in New Orleans is brighter than it has ever been. The people are devoted to their princely leader, and he is directing the forces with the skill of a great general.

From Crowley, W. O. Stephens reports fifty-one additions during the year, and the work in growing condition.

MISSISSIPPI.

W. A. Meloan is the strong evangelist of Mississippi. He reports four new church buildings erected, two new churches organized, two new schools organized, and thirty accessions. We regret the absence of fuller reports from this most important field, for we are sure no more substantial progress is being made at any point.

FLORIDA.

Our cause in Florida is growing. The First Church in Jacksonville, through trials and burdens, is meeting in its own house; its future is bright. Rufus Russell, C. W. Zaring and the ever-faithful minister, J. T. Boone, have led the self-sacrificing band of Disciples in this effort to recover from the effects of the fire.

We have greatly enlarged our help for the State Board of Missions, and more earnest, efficient work is being done in Florida than ever before. The State Board reports that during the year three missionaries have been at work in the field. There are thirty congregations in the State and eleven preachers. There were twenty-one baptisms and fifteen added otherwise last year.

TAMPA.—In addition to the above, we are planning a larger work in Tampa. Our Board will locate a good man soon, and it is hoped that what we have already gained may be held, and a much larger growth ensue.

ARKANSAS.

E. C. Browning has directed fifteen missionaries in Arkansas during the year, assisting seventy places, and reporting 347 baptisms and 558 added otherwise. Four new churches were organized.

EUREKA SPRINGS.—Here we are assisting S. H. Givler, who writes:

"Thousands of people come to this attractive health resort each year. Eighty-five thousand visitors came to Eureka Springs last year. Our opportunity in the presence of such an influx of visitors must be apparent. A large per cent. of our visitors is of a high type intellectually and morally. Here brain and body weary, lawyers, doctors, preachers, business men and farmers come with their families, and sometimes send their families, or a part of them, for rest and recuperation. Many coming, hear us and get something of our plea who would possibly not hear us at home at all. Many members of other religious bodies go the rounds of the churches here who stay close with their home work when at home. Many not members of any church and who go to no church at home attend now and then here, and make the rounds of the churches. One man above sixty years of age told me one Lord's Day after services that that was the first time that he had ever attended services conducted by our people. Yet he himself was a member of a church, and his home is in a city of over 25,000 population, and we have a good church there. Because of this condition we send something of our plea into every city and place whence our hearers come.

"The work well maintained now means a strong church later on. This town is growing and improving. Costly hotels and residences are now in process of construction, while other improvements are strongly talked of, which, if carried out, will very rapidly increase the growth of our town. The natural result of the increase of population and of wealth in the town will be the increase of membership and wealth in the church."

TEXAS.

Keep your eyes on Texas if you want to see our work go forward with leaps and bounds. Texas is an empire in possibilities for the plea for simple New Testament Christianity. We continued our help to the State Board of Missions, to Galveston, El Paso, Tyler, Mineral Wells and to the Mexican work at San Antonio.

George Munro reports fifty-three additions at Galveston during the year. The city is reviving, and our forces are occupying a leading place among the religious forces of the city. Our brethren here have had many discouragements, but the outlook is brighter than ever now.

Wm. H. Drummet reports eighty additions to the church at Mineral Wells in the last seven months. This is a famous watering-place, and a point of great advantage for the dissemination of the truth.

E. M. Waits, of El Paso, writes:

"I have been in this field only two months and a half. El Paso is destined to be the Denver of the Southwest; religiously it is the gateway to Mexico.

Our winter congregations are sometimes composed of representatives of thirty States. What an opportunity for primitive Christianity. Home and foreign field at one and the same time. Without the support of the Board, this work would have been impossible, and if a continuation can be granted for one more year, I believe after that the church can be self-sustaining."

From Tyler, J. C. Dickson reports:

"The work in Tyler has had its share of difficulty, but, thank God, has had its successful features. During the year, we have taken offerings for all the missions as their day came around, and our offerings have been growing ones as well as cheerfully given. The American Christian Missionary Society came to our help. The money appropriated by them has been well spent. They never made a wiser investment. During the year the church has raised $300 to reduce the debt to the Church Extension Board. During our ministry here, this is the second amount ($750 in all) raised, and we are beginning at once on the remaining $450. I always insist on offerings for all missions, for no church can live that neglects this important feature of the Master's work."

Thus it is seen that churches aided by missionary money become the most faithful supporters of our co-operative work.

The annual report of the State secretary for the year ending June, 1903, shows that the churches have been organized at the following places, to-wit: Richardson, Mt. Pleasant, Hondo City, Carrollton, Vernon, Ladonia, Jewett, Purcell, Aubry, New Boston, Johnson City, Menardville, Statford, Channing, Cooper, Mineola, Stout, Sunilan, Millwood, Wilmeth Schoolhouse, Frisco City, Murphy, Bartlett. Simsonville, Board Tree, Jester, Wasson Chappell, McCormick, Sands Springs and Vaughn's Schoolhouse; and reorganized at twelve other places, the names of which are already upon our Year Book. Comparing the above summary with the work done during the year from 1898 to 1902, we see a rapid development in our missionary work. In 1902—last year—we reported 2,557 additions, with twenty-three churches organized, and $13,526.90 in cash and pledges for State mission work, while this year we report 4,051 additions, 47 churches organized, and cash and pledges for our State work, $20,902.10—a gain of 1,494 additions, 25 churches, and $7,375.20 for State missions!

During the year the following evangelists and singers were engaged the whole or part of the time, to-wit: John W. Marshall, J. B. Boen, Mrs. J. B. Boen, Tom Smith, B. J. Waugh, E. M. Douthit, John Brower, M. M. Smith, V. L. Graves, A. M. Shelton, J. B. Faulkner, Jas. Faulkner, J. C. Eubanks, Emanuel Dubbs, H. M. Bandy, Frederick F. Wyatt, Mrs. F. F. Wyatt, Arthur W. Jones, A. C. Parker, C. E. Smootz, Frank Lanehart, Theo. Fitz, M. S. Ruff, A. D. Rodgers, O. J. Law, Lee P. Mansfield, S. A. Thomas, Thos. G. Nance, Vernon Harrington, Mrs. Vernon Harrington, J. L. Haddock, Talmage Stanley, Geo. Thomas, Granville Jones, B. B. Sanders, and G. D. Smith, secretary of the Board, a total of thirty-two. Missionary pastors have labored as follows: A. J. Bush, Edw. C. Boynton, H. J. Dudley, Geo. Munro, J. C. Dixon, J. H. Sheppard, J. H. McWhirter, A. L. Oder, Volney Johnson, Ernest J. Bradley, Colby D. Hall, J. S. Stockard, J. W. Gates, J. L. Andrews and Wm. H. Drummet; total, fifteen; thus giving a total of forty-seven evangelists.

GALVESTON.—During the spring, S. M. Martin held a great meeting with the church; our Board assisting by special appropriations. The result was a strengthening of that church, such as greatly encouraged the membership.

NEW MEXICO.

H. M. Bandy has been our missionary in eastern New Mexico. His work has been faithful, and the results satisfactory. But we should be entering this Territory in a large way. Recently R. W. Lilly has succeeded Bro. Bandy in the work at Clayton.

Jesse B. Haston, a faithful minister, writes of the splendid prospects that are before us in Las Vegas, Albuquerque and other places, if we would only enter in and win the harvest. We have fifty disciples in Las Vegas. They are trying to do the Lord's work, and need the hand of a strong, earnest minister to guide them. New Mexico holds out pleading hands to us.

R. W. Lilly works with the church at Clayton, preaching once a month, while continuing his work at Dalhart, Tex. A ten days' meeting recently held resulted in nine additions.

ARIZONA.

W. H. Bagby, who is leading the church at Phœnix, Ariz., in its splendid progress, says, in his annual report:

"The Territory of Arizona embraces an area of 101,250 square miles, or 64,800,000 square acres, and contains a population of 122,931. Within its area, also, can be found every variety of soil and climate. Here a prehistoric race once lived and constructed cliff-dwellings, pueblos and vast irrigation systems, the ruins of which remain until this day, interesting evidences of the ability of this region to sustain a vast population if only the water that used to be here can be induced to return to the thirsty land. And this will be done. It is a problem to the solution of which Uncle Sam has addressed himself. Arizona will get the first of a number of great storage dams to be constructed by the Government for the conservation of flood-waters that annually go to waste. This dam once constructed, the mighty power thus created will be set to work to generate electricity that in turn will be set to work pumping additional water from the inexhaustible underground supply, and to driving drills in hundreds of new mines that for lack of water can not now be operated. These things assured, with what we already have, it takes no prophet to say what the future of Arizona is to be.

"In all this vast Territory that has this bright future before it, we have but two organized churches—one at Phœnix and one at Bisbee. In a number of other places we have members enough to start churches. This is particularly true of Tucson, Prescott and Tempe. Efforts will be made at once, under the direction of the Southern California Convention, to organize churches at Tucson and Tempe. Both these places will need and ought to have help from the Home Board.

"A number of years ago a small congregation was organized in Phœnix by Bro. B. F. Coulter, of Los Angeles, Cal. From a very small beginning, and after many 'ups and downs,' the church has attained a numerical strength of about 200, between forty and fifty of this number having been added during the present year, a large percentage being heads of families. We own an attractive, well-equipped brick house of worship, eligibly located, upon which we owe a debt of about $1,800. From all sources and for all purposes we have raised, during the year, somewhere in the neighborhood of $1,600. Of this sum, $250 will be applied upon our indebtedness to the Extension Board. All departments are starting off encouragingly. We expect to double our numbers in all auxiliary departments before the holidays. It is my hope to make the coming year the best in the history of the church. But for the help of the Home Board in the past, the work could scarcely have survived. But it has never been adequate and the church has suffered from frequent changes of pastors." We are anxious to turn our attention more particularly to Arizona.

UTAH.

Our work in Utah is limited to one church in Salt Lake City. Our solitary representative in the State of Utah is Bro. T. W. Pinkerton. Writing personally, he says:

"The whole church feels, very consciously, its debt of gratitude to you and the Board. I am, personally, very grateful to you for your kindness. If you will compare this church's offering in May last with some others, I think you will be convinced that we appreciate fully what the Home Board has done for us. I beg you not to forget that the sacrifice for the cause in Salt Lake City is not all on the side of the Board. My brother, we are doing our best, and we are isolated and alone, so far as any help is concerned, in all this region, save that which we get in our mutual toil. We are deeply grateful."

His report to the Board, in full, follows:

"I wish I could tell you how deeply grateful we are to the Home Board for all they have done for us in the past. Without your help we would be utterly unable to live. We are trying to show our appreciation by doing all in our power to carry forward, and to make permanent, apostolic Christianity in this city. Our difficulties are manifold. We are handicapped by a debt upon the building which is not yet completed. We shall make a special effort to lift this burden within the next year. Mormonism is defiant and aggressive. It is utterly impossible to give you here any just conception of what Mormonism is. The environment here is different from any other city on earth, and one must live here for years before being able to understand Mormonism. I think if our brotherhood could realize just what we have to contend with they would at least extend to us their sympathy and be patient with our seemingly slow progress.

"This is the only church of our people in the State of Utah, and if it had not been for the American Christian Missionary Society, we would be unknown in this the chief city between Denver and San Francisco. We ought to have churches in Provo and Ogden. There is a very inviting field in both places, and I believe that if the Board had the money and the men we should soon be able to establish our cause in both cities.

"Salt Lake City is growing, and there is every prospect of a large influx of people. There are two new lines of railroad under construction to this city, and one of them will give us direct connection with Los Angeles, Cal. The coming of these lines bids fair to infuse new life into the business of the city.

"We are hoping to keep abreast with the ongoing of the place. In order to do this, we must have an auditorium, and this we can not hope to have without assistance from our brethren. All our religious neighbors are well housed and the denominations are represented here by several men. I stand alone. The isolation is very trying.

"Since the last Convention we have had fifty-two additions—twenty-four by confession and baptism. We have met all our financial obligations promptly, and have given $250 to missions. I say with all confidence that we are slowly gaining. The church is becoming more generally known in the city, and our audiences are uniformly good. We have been able to reach a good many people who have never before been under our influence.

"I appeal to you and the Board not to forsake us. I believe God will give us success."

OREGON.

PORTLAND.—J. F. Ghormley has been faithful in serving the First Church of Portland. During the year their new house of worship has been completed, and a new period has come in the history of the church. He reports:

"We have received into the fellowship of the First Christian Church, Portland, from Oct. 1, 1902, to Oct. 1, 1903, 225 persons. We now have a membership of 600, including members of the Chinese mission. We have responded to every missionary call during the year."

LA GRANDE.—O. H. King is your missionary at La Grande. The field is confessedly hard, and yet the church is growing.

PENDLETON.—The church at Pendleton, led by J. B. Lister, State evangelist, completed its home of worship. N. H. Brooks was called as missionary pastor, and under his care the church has continued to grow. The church had the services of Allen Wilson, the evangelist, and thus has attained a strong growth. The pastor reports 113 net gain.

STATE BOARD.—We have continued our help to the State Board of Missions. J. B. Lister, the corresponding secretary and State evangelist, reports:

"The Oregon Convention asked the General Board to double its appropriation for the coming year, calling attention to the great cities of Oregon City, Astoria, The Dalles and Baker City. There are in this State eleven out of thirty-three counties where we have no church. The cause should be planted in Salem upon a firm basis. As it is, our forces there scarcely hold their own. Much good has been done in this State, but if we could make larger appropriations, larger returns would inevitably result."

WASHINGTON.

TACOMA.—During the year the Central Church of Tacoma, under the efficient leadership of H. King Pendleton, assumed self-support.

PULLMAN.—David Husband sends his final report for Pullman, Wasn. During his labors there the church has been raised from a membership of forty to 118, and $310 was contributed to Home and Foreign Missions, while a debt of $500 was paid the Board of Church Extension. We regret that Bro. Husband resigned in June.

SPOKANE.—Dr. J. M. Allen ministered to the church on Dean Avenue, Spokane, during part of the year, when he was succeeded by J. W. Allen, his brother, recently from Chicago. The church is growing in strength, in love and good works. J. W. Allen reports forty-one additions at Spokane, and $75 raised for all missionary enterprises, besides $270 applied on Church Extension indebtedness.

DAVENPORT.—O. J. Gist labors under the Board's direction at Davenport, where W. F. Cowden, our Northwest evangelist, and E. O. Eshelman organized a church of sixty-five members in 1902. We now have a substantial church property, a prosperous Bible-school and a growing congregation. In the ten months of Bro. Gist's pastorate, forty-one have been added and $870.20 has been raised on the field. A great evangelistic effort is being planned for December of this year. We hope soon to release the hand of this sturdy child of Home Missions, that we may reach to other helpless ones in this region of crowding appeals.

SEATTLE.—Under the care of B. H. Lingenfelter, the First Church of Seattle completed its house of worship. J. H. Garrison led in the dedication services. The church is growing, and will soon be able to assume self-support.

FREMONT.—The church has been receiving help since May 1. This church was organized a little more than a year ago, and now owns a chapel and lot with but $250 indebtedness upon it, has a membership of sixty-one, and fifteen have been added since May 1. B. H. Allen is our enterprising missionary in this field.

WHATCOM.—J. N. Smith has led the Whatcom Church to larger service. They have built a new and larger house of worship; they have provided liberal things for the cause, and will soon be entirely self-supporting, and a source of blessing and help to others. J. N. Smith writes:

"I am glad to report that the church here will be self-supporting after this year. We would have reached this point some time ago but for our building a house of worship.

"The wisdom of the Home Board in planting and supporting this church is very apparent. But for this we would probably not have anything here, whereas we now have one of the strongest and best churches in the State, owning one of the most commodious and one of the best houses in the city, with an indebtedness of only $750, which is the remainder of the debt made twelve years ago in building a home for the infant church. The Board has our deep gratitude for its loyal support.

"We have a great and rapidly growing field; and while we are wholly free from strife and trouble, and are among the very strongest churches in the city, having an influence second to none; and while our prospects for the future are very encouraging, yet the field is a difficult one and the work is very hard. Many of the people coming here leave their religious obligations behind them. The spirit of greed and the love of pleasure take hold on all classes, both in and out of the churches. Saloons and houses of prostitution are numerous and powerful. But God is with us, and the church will become a great light in this Northwestern land."

STATE BOARD OF WASHINGTON.—We have increased the appropriation to the State Board of Washington. J. M. Morris was elected State evangelist by the State Convention, and has entered upon his work with energy and hopefulness.

In addition, we are assisting L. F. Stephens and wife as evangelists in the Eastern District of Washington. The work they did in Idaho commended them to the Washington brethren. They are just entering upon the work. We are hoping much from it.

CALIFORNIA.

The brethren of California have been upon the "firing-line" for the entire year. Their reports are inspiring. During the year there has been a net gain in membership of over 12 per cent. In Northern California 622 people were baptized, showing a net gain of over 6 per cent. California brethren have averaged $9 per member for all church purposes. Yet in the State there are seventeen counties out of fifty-one without a Christian Church, ninety-one places of 500 people and over, thirty-seven of 1,000 and over, and seventeen county-seats without a Christian Church. California is still missionary ground, but among the most fruitful corners of America for gospel ingathering as well as for the bounties of nature. Earnest appeals are made for larger appropriations in this field.

OKLAHOMA.

Oklahoma has 400,000 population; has 103 churches; a membership of 16,-000. There is not a county in the Territory where we have not churches; in one county there are thirty-five churches. There are only two county-seats in which we have no churches. On the letter-heads of the Territorial Board there is the motto, "Our Watchword, Two Thousand Additions and Twenty New Church Houses." The record for the year shows over 4,000 additions and forty-four new church houses.

This is a cheery spot in our work. J. M. Monroe writes:

"At the beginning of this missionary year the Territorial Board adopted the following: 'Watchword: Two Thousand Additions and Twenty New Church Buildings in Oklahoma the Present Missionary Year.' There have been double that number of additions, and nearly double the number of new buildings.

"The report of J. M. Monroe, the corresponding secretary, at the convention held at Oklahoma City, September 15-17, showed 16,000 members, 34 new church buildings and 304 organizations. The church directory issued last fall showed 12,200 members and 148 church buildings. There are 103 buildings, valued at $225,000. The reports of the secretary and of the evangelists were received with enthusiasm by the convention and regarded as phenomenal.

"Two factors have produced this result, or, at least, made it possible. The Church Extension loan is usually the determining factor in building; hence the unprecedented number of church buildings—thirty-four in a single year. This fund is a boon to Oklahoma as to no other locality. In all the new towns there are many Disciples, and they are usually poor; this enables them to be housed. The other factor is the Home Board. They keep up two lines of work—evangelistic and the support of the cause in weak but important points. Two corresponding secretaries have been in the field: John A. Stevens the first half of the year, and J. M. Monroe the last half; then, there are Evangelists R. S. Smedley, J. M. Gibson and George T. Wood. The Board also has made appropriations to C. H. White at Perry, F. D. Wharton at Newkirk, O. D. Maple at Lawton, and A. T. Edwards at Alva. We doubt not that larger results have been realized for the time and means expended by the Home Board, in Oklahoma, than a like appropriation elsewhere. The C. W. B. M. has supported John A. Taylor as evangelist, and has also assisted in the support of W. D. Wood as pastor at Edmond.

"The cause is strong in the cities. Oklahoma City has a church costing $25,000; Guthrie, a $15,000 house; Enid is now building a $10.000 house. El Reno, Kingfisher and Stillwater have enlarged their houses. All the six school centers are equipped with strong churches. All the counties, and all the county-seats but two, have organizations. All the county-seats but six have church buildings. The work of the coming year will be organizing and building in the many new railroad towns.

"I have had the work but the last half of the year, so am unable to give exact number of baptisms. The possibilities are that if the Home Board could give us ten organizers, or $3,000 with which we could get them, we could organize 100 churches and build sixty houses the next year."

NEWKIRK.—Newkirk is the county-seat of the banner county of Oklahoma, with a population of 3,500. Here F. D. Wharton has led the congregation successfuliy. Thirty-four additions are reported for the year's work. Great appreciation is expressed for the help of the Home Board.

R. S. SMEDLEY.—One of the most interesting reports comes from our field evangelist, R. S. Smedley. He says:

"My outfit consists of a span of horses, spring wagon, myself, wife and a Bilhorn telescope organ. This year we have planted six churches; viz.: Woodward, county-seat of Woodward County; Ringwood Prairie Chapel, four miles north of Carmen, both in Woods County; Richland, Blaine County; Taloya and New Harmon, Dewey County. We have organized two Bible-schools and four aid societies.

"We have during the year built four houses; viz.: Cherokee, Ringwood and Prairie Chapel, Woods County, and Lahoma, Garfield County. We have under construction three churches; viz.; Woodward, Taloya and New Harmon.

"We have raised during the year, for all purposes, $5,000. We have immersed eleven, and in all have added to the church 124 persons. Until it was too late, I did not keep a record from the sects, but a number are from the M. E.'s, United Brethren and Congregationalists.

"We have traveled during the year, with team and wagon, 4,026 miles, and 200 on train, making a total of 4,226 miles. In building churches, it is impossible to get a support. In the hustle for money to build with, they forget the evangelist. As examples: At Lahoma, while building, I received $3; at Ringwood something over $4; at Prairie Chapel worked one week, soliciting, and preached two sermons, and received $1.46, yet I made the point —I housed the Disciples. If I should press them for money for myself, I would fail to build the house, and that is the essential thing. Hence I have had to drive and drive, preach at schoolhouses and any place for freewill offering to keep up expenses. This ought not to be, and is very wearing on the constitution.

"Three years ago I put a new spring wagon into the business. It has run fully 12,000 miles, and is now worn out and a new one will have to be purchased this fall. We have visited thirty-four congregations and places during the year; in at least four of these places, if we could have procured a place in which to hold a meeting, there would be at least three more congregations, and three more houses in this year's work. In these places are Disciples, but they are cold and nothing short of a meeting would get them to work. What I now say about our needs for the work would never be said if I was able to supply myself.

"We need badly, and right now, a new 40x60 tent, so we can go into these new railroad towns on the ground floor, procure lots, band the brethren together, and build, permanently planting the cause of the Master. Were we thus equipped, we would show better results."

KANSAS.

We assist the Kansas State Board and support A. L. Ward as missionary at Lawrence. W. S. Lowe, State secretary, reports that fifteen missionaries have been kept in the field whole or part time, baptizing 216 converts during the year and adding to the churches 173 otherwise. Two new churches have been organized, and a vigorous campaign will be pushed during the coming year.

LAWRENCE.—A. L. Ward, our capable missionary, reports for Lawrence:

"Work commenced at Lawrence, Nov. 1, 1902, under the direction of A. L. Ward as missionary pastor. The missionary year closed with the work in prosperous condition. In the ten months that have passed there have been twenty-seven additions to the congregation. There are now 231 resident members, and twenty-three others who do not live here. There is little wealth in the church, and therefore the necessity of help from without. Church house in good condition, though small, and well located. Sunday-school, Christian Endeavor Society and C. W. B. M. are in good condition. There are about fifty students in the University of Kansas, belonging to the Christian Church. Of these quite a number attended our services frequently, and in the Sunday-school we had a class, taught by Sister W. C. Payne, averaging about forty. The University Y. M. C. A. holds its meetings in the auditorium each Lord's Day afternoon, and on Saturday evenings there is a young men's class in the lecture-room under the direction of Bro. W. C. Payne. There is every indication that this work will grow."

WYOMING.

At Newcastle, in the center of a large missionary district, J. S. Becknell has completed and dedicated a new building, thoroughly organized the church in all departments, and is leading the congregation to great achievements. With such faithful and persistent work, we shall look for great and lasting victories in Wyoming.

K. H. Sickafoose has continued his faithful service, in the lonely Territory of Wyoming, preaching at Big Trails and Hyattsville, forty-seven miles apart, and at Ten Sleep, midway between. The progress made is slow, but the gains are certain, the field exceedingly difficult, and the seed sown will result in abundant harvests in years to come.

MONTANA.

DILLON.—E. H. Kellar spent his vacation at Dillon, Mont., under the direction and support of your Board. The result is a new church of twenty-five members. Bro. Kellar asked your Board only his traveling expenses to do this work.

IDAHO.

The work in Idaho is small and weak. We are assisting a little, but not a tithe of what we ought to be doing for this great State.

BOISE asks for $300 for the coming year, with the assurance that they will be self-supporting thereafter. The church building will be removed to a better location. A. K. Wright says: "During a seventeen years' ministry we have never known a church more willing to do whatever it is able to do than the Boise Church of Christ."

E. Harold reports twenty months' work in Genesee. The congregation has been trebled, the Sunday-school quadrupled, and a live Christian Endeavor society organized. He says: "Rome rules one-half the town. There are four Protestant churches besides our own. No Sunday law known. Sunday is a day of reveling. It is a difficult field. We can not tell you how thankful we are for the timely aid you have given to the work in Genesee."

LEWISTON.—J. A. Pine is our missionary at Lewiston. The year has been one of steady growth and the work a prosperous one.

The church at Lewiston has made good progress this year. A much-needed addition has been built to the church building and dedicated free of charge. But for the help of the American Christian Missionary Society, the pastor, J. A. Pine, writes, this important field would have been entirely lost. Through our help the church has grown from fifteen to 168 in membership. Lewiston is a wicked place, and a hard battlefield, but we are gaining the victory, slowly but surely. There are hundreds of such opportunities in this great West.

NORTH DAKOTA.

L. N. Early, our missionary at Ellendale, writes:

"Our State contains 70,795 square miles, and we have a rapidly increasing population. While many of our people live in the country, we have two cities of about 10,000 each, twenty of 1,000 to 3,000 each, and one hundred of less than 1,000 each.

"We have one man who preaches every Sunday. We need more preachers in North Dakota.

"Our State is rich, and rapidly growing richer, and liberal provision has been made for the education of our children. If it is worth while to win to Christ an intelligent and prosperous people, not only for their own good, but also for the good of others, it will pay to make a liberal use of missionary money in North Dakota.

"I have been in the State 156 days, spending nearly all of the time at Ellendale. We have a membership of seventy-two resident and thirty-one non-resident members. Between Jan. 12 and Aug. 31, 1903, the church in all its departments, paid out, on account of debts, $117.63; salary, $175; expenses, $65.34; Convention S. S. Association, $3; State Endeavor work, $7; C. W. B. M., $4.15; F. C. M. S., $18.75; A. C. M. S., $37; total, $427.87. We have gained, in this time, three by baptism and two by letter, and we have lost one by withdrawal and one by letter. The offerings for 'Home Missions' should be much larger, that a part, at least, of North Dakota's needs may be supplied at once."

MINNESOTA.

The Christian Woman's Board of Missions unites with the Home Board in doing work in Minnesota. The State Board was recently reorganized and new plans of work adopted. We hope for larger results in State work in Minnesota.

MINNEAPOLIS.—C. B. Osgood ministers to the Grand Avenue mission in Minneapolis. This mission was organized Oct. 5, 1902, with fifty-five members and a Bible-school of 100. During the year thirty-four have been added by letter and thirty-eight by baptism, all departments well organized, and all missionary enterprises supported. Bro. Osgood writes: "Really there are no serious discouragements here, but everything to encourage us for future work." With such a spirit, victory is assured.

ST. PAUL FIRST.—We have assisted the First Church in St. Paul for many years. The church is just finishing a good house of worship, and as soon as that is finished, the church will be self-supporting. A. D. Harmon is their leader. He reports a new building under way at St. Paul, with the hope of dedicating in November. The church hopes after that to be self-supporting. Thirty-nine additions are reported.

ST. PAUL CENTRAL.—We have been helping the Central Church of St. Paul through the State Board. We have recently made an appropriation direct to this heroic band, and C. C. Davis has been called to be their minister. He is just entering upon his work.

A. J. Marshall, our field evangelist for northwest Minnesota, has spent his time gathering up the scattered Disciples in the State, and organizing in the smaller communities. He expects to organize churches in six new points before long. Many of our states are pursuing the policy of establishing the cause in the strong centers, and this occasions loud outcries from the rural districts. It is not the intention at all to abandon the smaller points, nor to discriminate against them. It is the policy of this Board and of the State Boards to provide for the future of the country districts and smaller cities by creating centers of influence and supply in the larger communities. Bro. Marshall is doing a difficult and most important work, in serving the scattered forces upon the frontier. He is supported by the Central Christian Church of Cincinnati, to whom, very largely, the future of our cause in northwest Minnesota must be indebted.

WISCONSIN.

What we do in Wisconsin should be begun in a large way in the next five or six years. We have only twenty-two small churches in the State. C. M. Kreidler, minister of the church at Milwaukee, served the State Board as corresponding secretary. He resigned at the recent State Convention and David N. Wetzell has taken the work. Bro. Kreidler reports:

"Five new churches have been organized during the year. Eleven men have toiled under the Board, reporting twenty-eight baptisms and fifty-one other additions. In this State but 29 per cent. of the population is American-born. Roman Catholicism is strongly entrenched. There is crying need of a very strong forward movement for the evangelization of the foreign population in this and other Northwestern States."

NEBRASKA.

Nebraska—the child of Home Missions—in a more marked way than any other State in the Union. Our Board began work there in the days when it was a Territory, and has continued until the present.

OMAHA.—J. H. Bicknell has been with the Northside Church ten months. He reports all debts liquidated, great enthusiasm and perfect harmony existing in the congregation. The loyalty, faithfulness and sacrifice of the members call forth words of merited praise from their devoted pastor. The greatest hindrance is lack of buildings. They express appreciation of the support of the American Christian Missionary Society. Bro. Bicknell takes up the work of State evangelist in Minnesota.

Fred Grimes is city missionary in the city of Omaha, and is supported by the Geo. Bates' Memorial Fund. He has organized, since May, two Sunday-schools and has opened work at three points in the city. He expects to organize at these points as they develop sufficient strength.

GRAND ISLAND.—Here labors the faithful Z. O. Doward. His work has been one long sacrifice for the kingdom. Our Board now assists in his support, and cheerfully commends the high order of his work.

W. A. Baldwin, State secretary, reports 215 baptisms, 155 other additions, a total of 370. Fourteen missionaries are employed. Two churches were organized, and three reorganized.

SOUTH DAKOTA.

Through the generous help of a disciple, who makes a personal offering with the direction that it be used in South Dakota, we have been able to help the State Board more than ever before. M. B. Ainsworth, State corresponding secretary, writes:

"The policy of the State Board has been, and is, to enlarge the vision of our churches that they might see their duty to our Missionary Societies and the spiritual development of our own State. In this work we have been gloriously successful. Foreign Missions, $204.50, 25 per cent. gain over last year; Home Missions, $411.44, 151 per cent. gain over last year; Church Extension, $37.90, 18 1-2 per cent. gain over last year; other benevolences, $307.15, 10 per cent. gain over last year; State Missions, $500, 100 per cent. gain over last year; total amount for missions, $1,460.99, 61 per cent. average gain over last year. The total amount raised for all purposes—pastor's salary, church property and improvements on church property, etc.—$15,290.55. Amount received from Home Missionary Society, $750, $150 of which went direct to Sioux Falls Church; $200 received from C. W. B. M. We have assisted in meetings five weak churches; supplied three churches until pastors were located, and settled some disturbances in the last three referred to; organized one new church of fifty-one members and built them a church home valued at $1,550. Our aim has been to place the churches on a solid basis, to encourage long pastorates and liberal giving. There is no State in the Union that offers better results than South Dakota. Her people are liberal and ever ready to help themselves. When won for Christ it is not difficult to solicit their sympathy for missionary purposes. Seven towns of 5,000 population each are waiting and ripe for our plea. Six towns of a population of 2,000 each, are likewise ready. We can not enter these towns and take them for Christ, because of financial weakness. We have one evangelist in the field, and we could use, and should have, twelve. "The harvest is ripe and the laborers are, indeed, few." Disciples in each of the above towns are calling for an evangelist to hold a meeting and organize a church. These are opportunities that we are unable to improve. Our great friend in these hours of need is the Home Missionary Society. The Disciples of Christ should strengthen her hands twenty-fold that they may be adequate to the needs of our country."

In addition to this, we have been helping E. A. Orr in Sioux Falls. He reports thirty accessions for the year, and the work in good condition, in spite of some severe losses and heavy discouragements. The need of good preachers is felt in the Northwest as never before.

THE FAR NORTHWEST.

W. F. Cowden has continued as superintendent of the Northwest, under the support of T. W. Phillips, and has done faithful, efficient work. With the consent of Bro. Phillips, he spent six weeks in Illinois canvassing for the May Offering. The impression was most favorable, and the result excellent. He represented the work of Home Missions in the conventions of Oregon, Northern and Southern California. His report is as follows:

"Since our last report of Sept. 15, 1902, the cause of primitive Christianity in the Pacific Northwest has gone steadily onward. Your Board has aided in supporting the work at the following important places: In Washington, at Whatcom, Seattle, Tacoma, Davenport, Spokane and Pullman; in Oregon, at Portland, Pendleton and LaGrande; and in Idaho, at Boise, Weiser, Lewiston and Genesee. The church at Whatcom, having rebuilt their house of worship, have been struggling with a heavy debt, but under the leadership of J. N. Smith, expect to assume self-support at the close of this current year. Precisely the same condition prevails in the First Church in Seattle, under the ministry of B. H. Lingenfelter. The Fremont mission in Seattle, established a year ago by Bro. Lingenfelter and Bro. Walden, has grown into a vigorous church of sixty-three members, with a Bible-school of over a hundred scholars. B. H. Allen has resigned, regarding the work as too onerous, but another minister will be secured and the work pushed to self-support. The Central Church at Tacoma, under the ministry of H. K. Pendleton, is out of debt and has been self-supporting since the first of the year At Davenport, where work was begun last year, a new house has been erected and was dedicated free from debt about the last of January. This is an important and prosperous mission, Davenport being the capital of Lincoln County, one of the largest agricultural counties in the State. O. J. Gist is in charge of this new work. Dr. J. M. Allen continued at Dean Avenue Church, Spokane, until about the first of March, when he turned the work over to his brother, John W. Allen, of Chicago. Under such leaders the cause could not be other than prosperous, as it is. Bro. Husband retired from the work at Pullman July 1, leaving the church united and strong for a forward movement. Ralph C. Sargent, of Mason City, has accepted a call to this very important work. Pullman is the home of the State Agricultural College, the best equipped institution of learning in the State.

"Besides these special missions, the State Board aided in supporting Galen Wood in a successful work at Ballard, which has now become self-supporting. The University Place Church, Seattle, also aided by the State Board, has been for some months without a minister. This is an important and strategic mission, and as soon as a suitable minister can be agreed upon, ought to receive a generous support. Although no regular evangelist has been employed by the State Board during the year, yet much missionary work has been accomplished throughout the State by meetings donated by the pastors of the different churches of the State. This year, however, the State Board has determined to place two evangelists in the State, J. M. Morris on the west side, and L. F. Stephens and wife on the east side. By the assistance of the General Board, the support for these has already been provided and the work for the year mapped out.

"In Idaho, A. K. Wright succeeded S. G. Clay at Boise City in January, and has continued the work with excellent results. An old debt greatly hinders the work in this important city. At Weiser, an important town in southern Idaho, a church has been organized and a house erected under the ministry of C. E. Evans. This work has recently been taken up by the General Board and is in a prosperous condition. Bro. J. A. Pine continues at Lewiston, with splendid results. The church has been compelled to almost double the seating capacity of their house of worship. At Moscow

Bro. J. W. Wittkamper closed with the year, leaving the church out of debt and self-supporting. E. B. Harris succeeded him in the work. At Genesee Bro. E. Harold has continued and the church is united and prosperous. L. F. Stephens and wife continued their work in northern Idaho until the 1st of June. Under their labors the older churches were greatly strengthened, and several new churches were organized. At Cul de Sac, a new town on the Clearwater Railroad, they built the first meeting-house in the place and organized a church with over one hundred members, and leaving it free from debt and able to support a minister full time. J. B. Daisley is in charge of this new work.

"In Oregon, the church at Pendleton has completed and dedicated their commodious house of worship. Allen Wilson held a very successful meeting, which greatly strengthened the church. Bro. N. H. Brooks is the minister here and is doing an excellent work. It is hoped that another year will find this church strong and self-supporting. At LaGrande Bro. King has had a prosperous year. The membership has increased and the church has been compelled to enlarge its house of worship. Bro. J. F. Ghormley has had another year of splendid success at Portland. This church, with its new house all complete and nicely furnished, is now well prepared for an aggressive movement in that great city. Their heavy indebtedness, however, pleads loudly for one more year's assistance from the Board. At Albina, on the east side, Bro. Albyn Esson is gradually leading the church out of debt and into favor and self-support. With these exceptions, the work in this State has been carried on under the supervision of the State Board, and has been characterized by splendid results.

"Thus, in these three great States of the far Northwest, God has bestowed his divine benediction on the work of the American Christian Missionary Society, and given to it a bountiful fruitage. Indeed, the favor of God has been upon all our churches, and the cause of New Testament Christianity has never been so prosperous on the Pacific coast as it is to-day. This whole country, too, has enjoyed a year of remarkable prosperity. It has had great increase in population and in the substantial development of its marvelous resources. There is no section of our whole country which furnishes to our Missionary Boards greater opportunities, or riper fields, for the investment of missionary money than this great Pacific Coast.

"As to my own personal labor, this has been a very busy year and one of almost constant travel. Last fall I made an extensive tour of Wyoming and southern Idaho. I spent several weeks in visiting Cheyenne, Laramie and Pocatella, with the view of instituting missionary work in these cities. This was found to be impracticable at the present time. I also spent a few days in Salt Lake City, where I found the church united and prosperous under the ministry of T. W. Pinkerton. March, April and May were spent among the churches in the East, chiefly in the State of Illinois, in the interest of the May Offering for Home Missions. June was occupied in attending the State conventions in northern Idaho, eastern and western Washington and Oregon, and most of July and August in a tour of California, attending the State conventions and visiting a number of the most prominent churches in the interest of Home Missions. The remainder of the time was spent in general work among the churches in Washington, Oregon and Idaho.

"During the year I have visited eighty-one churches and mission points, attended six State conventions and the National Convention at Omaha, dedicated three new houses of worship, held one protracted meeting and delivered 123 sermons and missionary addresses. In reviewing this work I am more deeply impressed than ever before with the great opportunities afforded our people on this coast, and, moreover, with its strategic relation to the great heathen nations whose redemption is so eagerly sought by the Christian people of this land. My heart's desire and prayer to God is that he will greatly strengthen the hands of your Board, not only for the splendid work you are now carrying forward here, but for much greater things in the year to come."

STATE BOARDS THAT RECEIVE NO HELP FROM OUR TREASURY.

OHIO.

This has been a great year for Ohio missions. The principal objects have been the raising of the state debt and the firm establishment of the work in larger centers. Forty missionaries have been employed and sixty-four places assisted. There were 244 baptisms by the missionaries, and 321 added otherwise. S. H. Bartlett, State corresponding secretary, is to be congratulated.

INDIANA.

T. J. Legg, corresponding secretary, reports the greatest missionary year in the history of Indiana work. Thirteen churches were organized by missionary assistance, 1,002 baptized into Christ, and 135 added otherwise. Thirteen missionaries worked during the year whole or part time, and sixty-two places were assisted. We rejoice with our Indiana brethren.

ILLINOIS.

Illinois sends a splendid report. Forty-seven men have been in the field, and organized eight churches. Sixty-three places were helped, 713 baptisms and 609 other additions reported. The work in Illinois is on better footing than it has been for many years, and the coming year will doubtless be the greatest in its history. J. Fred Jones is the State evangelist, known and loved of all men.

IOWA.

Iowa reports, for nine months of the year, 36 men employed, 53 places helped, 4 new congregations organized, 731 baptisms, 474 other additions. It has been a good year. B. S. Denny is the capable corresponding secretary.

MISSOURI.

The great State of Missouri, under the efficient leadership of T. A. Abbott, reports a marked advance. Twenty-three missionaries report 117 places helped, 1,361 baptisms, 995 added otherwise, and 19 churches organized by missionary labor. We have 783 preachers living in Missouri, and 1,700 organized congregations, containing 176,182 members.

KENTUCKY.

H. W. Elliott reports a splendid year in Kentucky missions. Thirty-eight regularly employed missionaries assisted 235 points, baptized 1,173, and added 975 to the churches otherwise. Thirteen churches were organized. Twenty-six students of the College of the Bible spent their vacations in the mountain district, doing mission work under the direction of the State Board and the joint support of the State and National Boards. Their report appears elsewhere.

TENNESSEE.

A. I. Myhr reports from Tennessee 300 added by baptism, 200 added otherwise, 2 new churches organized, 12 missionaries employed.

CITY EVANGELIZATION.

The American city presents the greatest problem of the age to Christian workers. The bulletins of the Census Bureau are authority for the assertion that the majority of immigrants arriving in a continual stream from the older countries across the seas swarm in the cities. Mr. Frank Sargent, Commissioner General of Immigration, has recently pointed out that the social, moral and sanitary conditions of the tenement districts of our larger cities are seriously threatened by the influx of unclean, ignorant and immoral hordes from abroad. They huddle in already crowded tenements, live in filth and vice, and contribute very largely to the cost of maintaining the criminal courts and the almshouses of the cities.

The city churches are already overburdened with problems of readjustment involved in the rapidly changing local conditions in city life. Few are able to grapple with the problem of race assimilation. And yet, to save America, we must save the cities from the social and moral corruption of European degeneracy. The cities are the refuge of the criminal classes. Here the line between the law violators and the law enforcers is so faint as to appear at times purely imaginary. Here the giant liquor evil is entrenched. When beaten out of country and state at large, it fortifies itself where its friends and followers are numerically and politically strongest. Here the church is overshadowed by the daily and Sunday theater, with its salacious and corrupt influence. Religion is antagonized by the commercialism which turns the Lord's Day over to debauching excursions, picnics, outings, and wanton rioting. The simple gospel is the only solvent of this most difficult of all problems, the only adequate remedy for this appalling peril. The New Testament meets the conditions as no theories concerning the New Testament can. The logic of conditions thrusts upon the Disciples of Christ the burden of evangelizing our cities, as upon no other people.

We have made beginnings in Pittsburg, Cleveland, Chicago, St. Louis, San Francisco, Brooklyn, New York, Atlanta, Baltimore, Philadelphia, Charleston, S. C.; Mobile, New Orleans, Galveston, San Antonio, Portland, Ore.; Seattle, Minneapolis, St. Paul, Omaha and other cities, but our resources have been such that we have not been able to move as profitably as we might otherwise be able to do. A large and liberal policy is sorely needed here. We ought to be enabled to employ a city evangelist in each city, to devote his entire time to the preaching of the gospel and the organization of churches. We are looking forward to the time when we shall be able to do this. It should not be delayed.

ST. LOUIS.

G. A. Hoffmann has been caring for the work at Maplewood (St. Louis), formerly Ellendale. During the year fifteen baptisms and sixteen other accessions have been reported. There is an enrollment of 106 in the Sunday-school, and seventy-three members in the church. Over sixty dollars have been raised for missions. The church house has been recently sold and a new location secured. Recent evangelistic services have been held with most flattering results.

G. E. Ireland is being supported by the American Christian Missionary Society at Carondelet Church, St. Louis. He reports fourteen baptisms and eighteen received by letter during the year, Sunday-school of 110, and a membership of eighty-four, with property valued at $2,500, and all missionary calls responded to. This congregation is already establishing a mission fourteen blocks farther out. The work is well organized and results are multiplying.

CHICAGO.

CHICAGO has a population of over two million, being nearly one-half that of the entire State. We have twenty-eight organizations in the city, only twelve of which are self-supporting, while the rest of the State has nearly eight hundred churches.

The membership in Chicago numbers 4,500, a third of which are in the churches receiving missionary help. Eight new churches have been built in as many years. This makes twelve houses of worship to the twenty-eight organizations. A spirit and method of unity characterizes the work as never before. The aim now is to build up the already existing organizations, and to open new fields only as means and men may be provided to care for them. The corresponding secretary of the City Board acts as superintendent, doing very much the same work as a State secretary does for the State.

The funds received for city missionary work during the year are from the following sources: The American Christian Missionary Society appropriates to the general work for supplementing salaries and evangelistic purposes $1,500, and to salary of superintendent, $500. The Illinois C. W. B. M. gives to Chicago work the sum of $1,500. Our local churches contribute about $900, one-third of which is paid by the missions. Then we have from personal giving, and various other ways, $400, or upwards, making the sum total of less than $5,000.

Fourteen mission churches are receiving financial aid; nine of these have settled pastors; six are giving full-time service and three but part of the time. Supplements are varying from $10 monthly to $600 a year, according to the needs of each respective work.

While most of the money contributed has been spent in supplementing pastors' salaries, the evangelistic work has not been neglected, but has been carried on very successfully by these pastors: Nine meetings were held during the year, aggregating 183 days, with 113 additions; baptisms, 61; others, 52; accessions from organization of new work, 78; total, 191.

This has been a year of very substantial progress. Irving Park, of which Marion Stevenson is pastor, after the completion of its commodious new house, has become self-sustaining. This church had its beginning only five years ago. West Pullman, where N. G. Buckley ministers, has also decided to get along without financial assistance from the outside. The church at Evanston, despite the long illness of its pastor, W. D. Ward, has made commendable progress, having purchased and paid for a building-lot and also becomes self-supporting.

The Austin Church, where George A. Campbell preaches, has secured property during the year valued at $8,000, on which only a small indebtedness remains. It has a membership of 118. Thirty additions. The Austin Church cares for the mission at Moreland, Dr. L. E. Newcomer preaching, for which it receives an appropriation from the Missionary Board.

Douglas Park Church, ministered to by Clare L. Waite, has enjoyed much prosperity during the first year in its new home. The influence of this church in the community is excellent. It has 103 members; thirty-nine additions in the year, and raised $1,120 for local purposes. The Ladies' Society is one of the best in the city.

The Sixty-second and Ashland Church has been fortunate in keeping the same pastor, J. F. Findley (now in his second year), who, with his business ability, has led this people in the building of a substantial church home. The membership numbers eighty-six. Additions for the year, twenty-seven. Money raised for current expenses, $872; paid also on building indebtedness, $941. This is a good work.

The Harvey Church has paid off all its indebtedness. With commendable devotion and sacrifice, R. L. Wilson serves this faithful band of disciples, and was assisted in an evangelistic effort by J. Fred Jones. Members, sixty-eight; added in the year, eighteen. Local expenses paid amount to $753.

Among other promising features of the work during the year may be mentioned the following: R. J. Whitson is now located at Maplewood; J. V. Updike has just entered the work at Garfield Boulevard; M. T. Brown is doing a good work among the colored people, and Willis Brown, formerly associated with the Baptists and still editor of Pluck, has identified his work and himself with our forces. Besides, there have been opened two new fields; viz.: Chicago Heights and South Chicago. Harvey E. Tucker will become pastor of the former, and the latter, for a time, will be cared for by the West Pullman Church, N. G. Buckley, minister. Other missions not mentioned here are growing, and in time will report progress in church work. All in all, our work is being blessed of God. The good brethren who are aiding our missions in this city have every reason to be encouraged. The work done justifies larger investments for the future.

Unentered Fields.—The work done in Chicago is inspiring; it ought to thrill all with hope; but most inspiring is the work untouched, the vast fields unentered; it ought mightily to stir us all. Three-fourths of Chicago is foreign. We have no church, and no man working among those who have come to our very door. There are more negroes in Chicago than in any other city in the United States. We have but one small church among the colored population. One-tenth of the Chicago population is submerged, physically and morally wrecked; yet we have no rescue, no charitable or hospitable institution, and no church in the downtown district, comprising a half-million people.

New communities are springing up as if by magic. Out on the prairie a great manufacturing plant suddenly appears, then follow the houses of the laboring men, and a new city has come.

Not one of these now invite us, but scores. Shall we not enter? Chicago is growing much more rapidly than the country. Boys from our homes in every State are coming to make their fortunes here. Many find their lodging-places in communities in which we have no churches, and are lost to us. The fields unentered are white for harvest. Shall we not be privileged to go into them, and gather in the valuable grain?

A. LABRABEE, Cor. Sec. and Supt.

PORTO RICO.

Wm. M. Taylor returned to Porto Rico last fall. He labored faithfully, and in July he was again compelled to leave the island on account of ill health. We are negotiating with a brother to go to the island, and take charge of this growing work. No more productive field has occupied the attention of the Board than Porto Rico. It is with great sorrow that we part with the services of W. M. Taylor, whose devotion and zeal have set our cause so far on the way in this island. We give his report in full:

"The following is the report of work done by your humble servant and four helpers in Porto Rico during the past year:

"Number of regular preaching-points, 10; number of days' work done, 1,620; number of sermons preached, 920; number of baptisms, 137; number in Sunday-school, 192; total number of members, 273. The prospects are bright for the cause of Christ in Porto Rico. Every new convert becomes an advocate of the religion of Jesus Christ. The native converts are persecuted by their people, but they are made stronger in the faith by means of the persecution. Some of them have almost memorized the New Testament, and they go from village to village preaching the gospel to their countrymen. It breaks my heart to leave the field, but am forced to return to the United States on account of my inability to live in this climate. We need to keep one good, live American in Porto Rico, and he, with native help, can soon evangelize the island. We need church buildings in San Juan, Bayamon and Mayaguez, besides some small chapels in several other places. This is indeed a needy field; the people are very poor, and can not get profitable employment, and are very ignorant of the will of God concerning them. The gospel applied is the only remedy that can save them from despair and death eternal. In this, my last report of work done in Porto Rico, I enter an earnest appeal in behalf of this unfortunate, down-trodden race."

Since his return to this country, W. M. Taylor has visited the churches in Tennessee in the interest of Home Missions. He says: "Except in a few churches whose elders closed the doors against me because I was 'progressive,' I have been well received. I find there is a great lack of information and much misunderstanding as to the work of the Missionary Societies, but as soon as they learn of the work of our Missionary Societies the body of the churches respond heartily, expressing a desire to have fellowship with us in the work. I am fully convinced that we can not afford to neglect this educational campaign, which in the future will result in thousands of dollars for missions." He has also organized a congregation at Cleveland, Tenn., since his return. Fully appreciating the splendid services of Bro. Taylor, your Board has placed him in the field of the South as general evangelist.

AMONG FOREIGN POPULATIONS.

THE MEXICAN WORK.—Ygnacio Quintero, our faithful missionary to the Mexicans in San Antonio, Tex., reports a splendid year. The congregation has moved into the building purchased by the American Christian Missionary Society, and Bro. Quintero has a comfortable home owned by the brotherhood and free from all encumbrance.

Thirty-one confessions and four added otherwise during the year. Services are held regularly and the interest is growing. Bro. Quintero's house will not accommodate over sixty, but the house is always full, and frequently many stand outside and listen. Bro. Quintero writes:

"There have been so many calls for light that I have recently bought a printing outfit, and I shall issue a small church paper in Spanish each week. I have a son who is a printer, who will assist me in this work. The needs of this field are a school in San Antonio, and a new church building, and more missionaries to labor in adjoining fields. The Mexican people are showing a great interest in the Protestant religion, but they do not go much to the American churches, hence the need to send missionaries to them. We pray for the blessing of the Lord on the Board, for its generous assistance to a poor and needy people, and in trying to teach the people to accept and appreciate the kind assistance."

We should remember that there are in Texas alone 71,342 Mexicans and Spaniards who need the gospel, and that in Texas, New Mexico, Arizona and California there are more than 100,000 of this class, who have but the partial light of Romanism, or are little better than the heathen abroad. To these we ought to hasten with the gospel. Mexico is the open door for the continent of South America. If we can but train native workers under the influence of American thought and custom, we shall be better able to proceed into this waiting region than if we sent native, English-speaking Americans to undertake the work. Every indication of our work among this people emphasizes the need of larger plans and aggressive campaigning.

AMONG THE GERMANS.—William Kraft succeeded R. H. Timme at the West Side mission in Cleveland, O. The entire fraternity of Cleveland has entered liberally into the fellowship of this work. Franklin Circle Church being specially generous. In conjunction with the Ohio State Board, the American Christian Missionary Society is standing by this most hopeful mission. Bro. Kraft has been wise and cautious in his work, and as a result of his leadership the work is in better condition than it has been. Progress must necessarily be slow, but we are assured of its ultimate permanency.

It is the conviction of many among us that the work among the foreign population should be pursued with a much larger purpose and with further reaching plans. We hope to be able to undertake in the near future such a campaign in this direction as shall be wholly worthy of our large resources and our commensurate responsibilities.

STUDENTS' VOLUNTEER MOVEMENT FOR HOME MISSIONS.

Shortly before the close of the last session of Kentucky University, the Y. M. C. A. of the College of the Bible planned to do some practical missionary work in the mountains of Kentucky during the summer vacation. The American Christian Missionary Society and the Kentucky State Board agreed to supply the funds to pay the necessary expenses of the undertaking, and arrangements were made with such men as Bro. R. B. Neal, and others thoroughly familiar with the mountains, to locate the men sent out in the most available fields. Volunteers were called for in the college, and about twenty-five young men responded; some agreed to remain in the mountains all summer, and others to hold meetings. These all agreed to go for their necessary expenses only. The reports from the young mountain missionaries are full of enthusiasm and the promise of great things. One hundred and thirty-six baptisms and seventy-five other additions were reported for the total 251 days in the field. Five Sunday-schools, one church, and two Christian Endeavor societies were organized. M. L. Hurst, writing of the work, says:

"There was no difficulty in securing places to preach, or audiences to listen, for the mountain people are hungering and thirsting after the gospel and eagerly heard consecrated young men who were able to lead them into the way of truth and life. The mountaineers are generous and hospitable, and as a rule the missionaries were welcomed into every home. One of the students, who has just returned to Lexington after being in the mountains two months, reports that he had calls to hold five meetings which he could not accept. In most cases the students went out by twos, and work was done in several counties, but the best results were accomplished where there was a concentration of effort in one territory. At a few places, when two would close a meeting and remove to another place, others went in to continue the work begun."

The total cost to your Board of this work was but little over $200. We feel that this experiment has demonstrated the practicability and desirability of engaging thus early our young college brethren in the work of missions, and of entering the long-neglected quarters of our older States. We sincerely hope that all of our colleges will encourage ministerial students to enter the fields that lie waiting in every direction, during the vacation months. In many places now destitute of gospel privileges, Sunday-schools could be organized during the summer months, which would eventually grow into churches. We commend the work to our student body.

WAITING HARVESTS.

The call of the wide-open fields is worthy of special emphasis. An examination of our home mission work shows large fields into which we have never entered.

ALASKA.—We have never entered Alaska; there are thousands upon thousands of men who need help. Alaska is growing in importance, both in its relation to our country and as a mission field. In the interior the population is nomadic, so that permanent results can not be established; yet, along the coast and in the Yukon, we should be strongly established. We should carry the gospel to the tempted and exposed men who, going from Christian communities to those rough regions, full of peril to body and soul, need the present help and message of the missionary of Jesus Christ.

THE EAST.—J. H. Hardin and W. J. Wright have both written strongly of the East as a mission field. We must enter that great field in large force and more effectively. If we lose in the East, we can not be fully successful, whatever we may do elsewhere. There are 16,500,000 people north and east of the Potomac River; 13,000,000 have never favorably heard our great plea for Christian union. Every plea that could be made to any people urges us to large work in the East. No small plans will do; the work done must be commensurate with the greatness of the field and the greatness of the results desired.

FOREIGN POPULATION.

FOREIGN POPULATION.—A study of the foreign populations of our country makes it plain that we have scarcely begun to do our duty in this important respect. The claims of the foreign populations are being thrust upon the attention of the church. Christian patriotism says we must evangelize these people, or their coming to our land will bode no good to the republic. The census of the United States shows the number of foreigners in the land to be 10,341,276.

It should be borne in mind that the immigration from the Anglo-Saxon and Celtic nations has dwindled thus:

|---|---|
| From England, 1882. . . . . | 82,394 |
| From England, 1903. . . . . | 13,575 |
| From Ireland, 1882. . . . . | 76,432 |
| From Ireland, 1903.. . . . . | 29,138 |
| From Germany, 1882. . . . . | 250,630 |
| From Germany, 1903. . . . . | 28,304 |
| From Scandinavia, 1882 . . . . . | 93,708 |
| From Scandinavia, 1903 . . . . . | 48,378 |

But there have been vast increases, as follows:

|---|---|
| From Italy, 1872. . . . . | 4,190 |
| From Italy, 1903. . . . . | 178,375 |
| From Austria and Hungary, 1872. . . . . | 4,410 |
| From Austria and Hungary, 1903. . . . . | 171,989 |
| From Russia and Finland, 1872. . . . . | 2,665 |
| From Russia and Finland, 1903. . . . . | 107,347 |

These figures show that the proportion from the allied races in Protestant and progressive Europe has steadily and markedly fallen, while the proportion of Catholic and illiterate immigrants has steadily and enormously increased. It should also be borne in mind that in the early days of America's history the settlements were made by superior and educated representatives of the older civilization, whose civic and religious life was of that intense character so needful for the foundations of good government. But now the new settlers are, in thousands upon thousands of cases, the dupes of the emigrant agents, who lure them by false promises and glowing pictures of fabulous realms and golden opportunities, ship them like cattle across the seas, and dump them into the midst of our civic and religious life. Embittered against all authority and despising religion on account of the tyranny and deception of the "Mother Church," disappointed often and deceived oftener, they become the natural enemies of the Government. America, under God, must be a Protestant nation—a thoroughly Christian nation—for the accomplishment of the great designs of the God of history. If we do not make Christians of these countless strangers who throng our borders, the progress of our cause must be impeded and the life of our nation imperiled.

There are in the United States 20,919,887 persons both parents of whom are foreign-born—a total of over 31,000,000 of foreign birth and parentage. We must note that these foreigners are largely congested in our cities. St. Louis is 13 per cent. foreign; Detroit, 15 per cent.; Cincinnati, 18 per cent.; Chicago, 23 per cent; Miiwaukee, 27 per cent. In Chicago we have 80,000 Bohemians in one mass; we have 50,000 Polanders in the same city utterly untouched by American schools or American ideas.

The vast majority of foreigners come to our shores for worthy purposes: for peaceful interests; to be free; to have a home of their own; to better their worldly conditions; to be on an equality with men about them. Yet very few of them are real Christians; they are mere formalists; multitudes are infidels; a large proportion are Roman Catholics. The reports of the Commissioner of Immigration show that over 50,000 Roman Catholics arrived in America in July, 1903. These Catholics are antagonistic to our public schools; many thousands of these immigrants are favorable to the sale and use of intoxicating liquors; they favor the making of the Lord's Day a holiday, instead of a holy day; many have the Nihilist's ideas of government, the Communist's idea of property, the pagan's idea of religion. Twenty nationalities were represented in the first six months' arrivals in New York this year. We must evangelize and Christianize this vast host of men and women of alien thought, or our land will become a Babel or a Babylon.

Besides these large fields, we have the most pressing appeals from our own brethren and sisters asking for help in the enlarging opportunities that are all about us. We rejoice in the gift of $102,000 for Home Missions, but we could profitably and with but little additional expense use five times that amount.

THE COMING EMPIRE.

The purchase of Louisiana Province by the United States, one hundred years ago, marked an epoch in the religious as well as the political history of America. The whole scheme of the domination of that vast region by France and Romanism was frustrated and the vigorous Protestant element of the Eastern States in time largely took possession of the land.

Fourteen States have been carved out of the Louisiana Purchase, and in all of them your Board has done mission work, in the evangelization of the millions who have made their homes there and for the untold millions yet to come.

The fifteen millions now in that region will doubtless be increased to 100,000 millions in another century. For the work of laying broad foundations for the coming empire of the West, we should have liberal offerings, wise men and methods and vigorous effort.

Greater than for many years are the demands for missionary appropriations throughout the West. Unprecedented immigration is being attracted to that land; the opening of new country to settlement; the projection of new lines of railway; the vast scheme of irrigation, supported by the National Government, and many circumstances, combine to win to the West thousands upon thousands of our people; many of these are our brethren and sisters in Christ Jesus. They are in little bands and companies; they have found each other, and over two hundred of these little bands have asked us to come to their help in laying the foundations of the Church of Christ.

OUR EXHIBIT AT ST. LOUIS.

Memorials are pleasing to God and profitable to men. It is the consensus of public opinion that we should avail ourselves of the opportunity of the great Memorial Exposition to be held at St. Louis, in 1904—at which will be gathered men of every nation under heaven—to make an exhibit of our work, our growth, and freely give information of this movement which makes for the union of all lovers of our Lord and his Christ.

A committee has been provided to report to this Convention upon the advisability, the plan and method of such an exhibit.

ANNUITY FUND.

We received during the year the sum of $25,300 on the Annuity Plan. This is the largest amount we have ever received in any one year. It is a gain of $1,580 over last year.

This plan is growing in favor with our people. We earnestly commend it to all who wish to help the Lord's work with their money. It is better than a bequest, as experience shows that one-half the bequests made to religious purposes are made the subject of contest in the courts. We commend the Annuity Plan for the following reasons:

1. It yields a larger net income than any other form of investment.
2. You are free from anxiety about taxation; money so placed is free from taxation.
3. Its value is fixed through all the years of your life and can not decline.
4. You are free from anxiety in regard to your property; the investment is absolutely safe, no expenses for repairs or danger of bad investments. An Annuity Bond is issued by us, securing the prompt payment of semi-annual interest.
5. Your income from your Annuity Bond will not decrease.
6. You are free from anxiety about collecting your interest; it is sent you promptly without solicitation from you.
7. Your income from your Annuity will continue throughout your lifetime; no changes of fortune, no feebleness of age, no attacks of sickness, no panic in the business world will stop or reduce your income from this source.
8. It is free from risks that accompany other forms of investments. As long as the Church does missionary work the American Christian Missionary Society will continue to receive money on the Annuity plan and will meet all its obligations.
9. You are free from anxiety about the final disposition of your property. The Annuity Plan enables you, while in the full possession of your powers of mind, to decide upon the final disposition of the property of which you are steward. The money given to the Society will be used strictly in accordance with your wishes. The Society will either spend the principal when it comes into full possession of it, or, if so requested by the donors, will hold the principal as a permanent fund and spend only the income. If undesignated, the money, when released by the death of the donor, will be used for the general purposes of the Society, in accordance with the best judgment of the Acting Board.
10. You are free from anxiety about making a will; you have disposed of your own property and executed your own will.
11. Donors know that the money thus given to the Society will be used for the purposes for which it was intended, which is not always the case with money left to the Society by will, because wills are frequently overthrown by the courts, and even when established, it is not infrequently the case that a considerable portion of the legacy is wasted in legal contests.
12. Donors having decided upon the use which they will make of the Lord's money, by the Annuity Plan are removed from the temptation to spend it for their own comfort or luxury, or to distribute it under momentary impulse among less worthy objects.
13. Donors are relieved of the care and anxiety necessarily involved in caring for their own estate. Money, to be profitab'e, must not lie idle; it is not always easy to find secure investments; losses by unfortunate ventures are almost inevitable; money often lies idle for a time for the want of suitable investment; it is sometimes well-nigh impossible to obtain investments that shall be safe, and at the same time remunerative; the burden of the care of property increases with age and infirmity; widows, unaccustomed to the care of property, find it especially burdensome.
14. You have the joy of advancing the kingdom of our Lord in your own land and in your own lifetime.
15. You have the joy of helping forward the great plea of the Disciples of Christ in this, our great day of opportunity, and helping the evangelization of America, the ripest harvest field in the world.

We commend this plan to you, and would be glad to correspond with you about Annuities.

Write to Benjamin L. Smith, Corresponding Secretary, Y. M. C. A. Bldg., Cincinnati, O.

We have prepared a booklet on the Annuity Plan, which we will be glad to send to those who will ask for it, free of cost.

BEQUESTS.

We have received $3,922.68 in Bequests during the year. The list is:

|---|---|
| J. T. Phillips, New Castle, Pa | $ 190.00 |
| E. S. Moody, Chatham, O | 208.75 |
| Eliza Hampson, Newton Falls, Ohio | 2,453.60 |
| Dr. G. W. Taylor, Princeton, Ill | 825.17 |
| Eunice Harrison, Painesville, O | 60.00 |
| Jas. McCoard, Columbus, O | 135.16 |
| (Turned over to Church Extension). | |
| Ann Eliza Reno, Hiram, O | 50.00 |

FORM OF BEQUEST.

I hereby give and bequeath to the American Christian Missionary Society, whose headquarters are at Cincinnati, Ohio, the sum of.....dollars, to be used for preaching the gospel in America.

(If the bequest is real estate, it should be particularly described and the laws of the State in which you live particularly complied with.)

PERMANENT NAMED FUNDS.

Experience has shown the unquestioned success of the Permanent Named Memorial Funds. We have now ten such funds. Five of these are on the Annuity Plan; that is, the donors needing the income of the money during their lifetime have given us $5,000 on the Annuity Plan, with instructions that at their death it shall be made a Permanent Named Memorial Fund.

During the year we received one such fund. S. R. and Mary Ezzell, of Lancaster, Tex., gave us $5,000 on the Annuity Plan, and at their death it will become a S. R. and Mary Ezzell Named Memorial Fund, in the name of which we will keep a missionary at work through all the years.

Charles A. Mee, of Cleveland, Tenn., gave to his wife during her lifetime certain property; at her death it will become a Charles A. Mee Named Memorial Fund. He had already given us a fund of $5,000 on the Annuity Plan. At the death of Sister Mee, it will become a Mrs. Francis T. Mee Named Memorial Fund.

These Named Funds, already given, are all doing their work for the Master.

The Francis M. Drake Named Fund supported Milton H. H. Lee at Baltimore. Since his resignation Joseph Black has been called there, and the fund has been returned for one more year. Bro. Lee worked earnestly for the church.

The John Reed Memorial Fund has been used to support J. H. Hardin as our general evangelist in New England. His report is printed under the report of New England.

The Dr. Henry Gerould Fund has been used, by consent of Sister Gerould, in spirit of sacrifice and service. It is given in the South Carolina report.

The Lathrop Cooley Fund has been used, by direction of Bro. Cooley, in supporting Geo. Greenwell as city missionary in San Francisco. He says: "Our new church is nearing completion, which will aid us in our work very much. Our C. E. Society has a membership of twenty-one workers, and the Junior is a promising work. The brotherhood never spent $300 per year to better advantage than it has in this field."

The George Bates Memorial Fund has been used in supporting J. C. Bicknell, Grant Street Church, Omaha, and Fred Grimes as city evangelist in Omaha. Their reports show the church built up and one new congregation organized, and the work at Florence greatly enlarged.

"A FRIEND TO HOME MISSIONS MEMORIAL FUND"

was used in support of the work at Atlanta, Ga. R. Lin Cave is now the missionary of the West End Church, Atlanta, and is doing a splendid work for those people.

THE MARGARET OLIVER MEMORIAL FUND.

was used to support our work in Philadelphia, Pa. The missionary has been Casper Garrigues. His work is under the direction of the City Board of Missions of Philadelphia. The progress now in his work is a matter of pride.

We have the following Named Memorial Funds, which are as yet on the Annuity Plan. That is, the donors receive the interest during their lifetime: Francis T. Mee, S. R. and Mary C. Ezzell, Nellie Eckert.

OUR OWN MISSIONARY INDIVIDUALS.

The following letter from the chairman of our Acting Board speaks for itself:

S. M. COOPER,
UNION TRUST BUILDING,
(N. W. COR. FOURTH & WALNUT STS.)
CINCINNATI.

CINCINNATI, OHIO. May 15th, 1903.

Mr. B. L. Smith,
Cor, Sec. A. C. M. S.,
City.

My dear Bro. Smith:-

The success of your work increases our interest in it. Considering the small amount of money at your command, the good work accomplished under the direction of the American Christian Missionary Society is truly marvelous. Every disciple acquainted with the recent history of the Society has rejoiced in the constant increase of its funds from year to year and above all in the proportionate enlargement of the Kingdom of God.

Your efforts to socure "Living Link Churches"-- churches contributing three hundred dollars, thus supporting a missionary in the field -- have suggested to me the idea of "Living Link Brethern".

I am confident that one hundred disciples can be found each of whom will contribute twenty-five dollars a month for the Year 1904 to preach the Gospel in America, thus adding $30,000 to our treasury. This would give a wonderful impetus to the work, inspiring individuals and churches to greater liberality and telling mightily in the great work of evangelizing our beloved land.

The success crowning every effort you have made warrants me in believing that you will be able to secure the number designated above thus to identify themselves with the work you are leading.

I count it a great privilege to make Mrs. Cooper a "Living Link Sister" and authorize you to draw on me for twenty-five dollars a month during the Year 1904.

Yours very truly,

S. M. Cooper

We hope for a large number who will unite with Bro. Cooper in this worthy plan and enterprise.

Thomas Philips has long sustained Wm. F. Cowden, our splendid Superintendent of Missions in the Northwest. Now S. M. Cooper decides to support a missionary. Howard C. Rash, of Salina, Kan., has contributed $300 to support his own missionary. We ask fifty others, whom God has blessed with prosperity, to come into this goodly company. An earnest invitation is given our prosperous brethren and sisters to this mark of their gratitude to the Giver of all good.

We have also received the following letter:

OKLAHOMA CITY, O. T., Sept. 28, 1903.

DEAR BRO. SMITH:—My wife and I have concluded to be a "Living Link," whether any one else does in Oklahoma or not. For some years we have been tithing it; last year we put it in the enlargement of the El Reno Church; the year before, into the Church Extension; and this year we will put it into a Living Link. Of this my wife will give one-third. J. M. MONROE.

OUR OWN HOME MISSIONARY CHURCHES.

There has been no element of our growth more gratifying or full of promise than the large number of churches that have decided to become supporters of their own home missionaries under this Board. This is the Living Link plan applied to Home Missions, and we call them "Our Own Home Missionary Churches," to distinguish them from the Living Link churches of our Foreign Society.

If any church will pay $300 or more into the treasury of the American Christian Missionary Society, it thereby becomes one of "Our Own Home Missionary Churches," and a missionary is selected by that church in connection and correspondence with the Board of Managers. He becomes the special missionary of the supporting church; he reports to the church supporting as well as to the Board, and in every way keeps the church in close touch with the mission field.

"Provoke one another to love and good works," and, in order to carry out this injunction, we give the

SPECIAL MISSION.

The following churches will support some special work the coming year:

Indiana—
Angola—Chas. S. Medbury.

Kentucky—
Mayfield—R. L. Clark.

Pennsylvania—
Connellsville—C. M. Watson.
Uniontown (Central) — Herbert Yeuell.
Washington—E. A. Cole.

West Virginia—
Bluefield—W. R. Moss.

This selection of special work is a matter of gratitude and a ground for hope.

BOYS' AND GIRLS' RALLY DAY.

Nothing in our work has in it more promise or potency than Boys' and Girls' Rally Day for America. This day—the Lord's Day before Thanksgiving—bears the same relation to our home missionary work that Children's Day does to our foreign work.

The Convention decided that 50 per cent. of the proceeds of this day shall be returned to the State whence it comes. It is not a new burden, but a new opportunity. If taken up with enthusiasm, it will certainly bring to our Bible-schools far more than it costs, in blessing. It is a Rally Day, when all the scholars can be gathered in.

We have a splendid exercise for Boys' and Girls' Rally Day, prepared by Geo. B. Ranshaw and James H. Fillmore. This is sent to the schools free of cost.

The growth of Boys' and Girls' Rally Day is as follows: 1899, $1,352.66, 1900, $2,778,87; 1901, $3,674.54; 1902, $4,647.72; 1903, $6,897.13.

We note with pleasure the growth of this day, and hope for a largely increased number of schools observing the day this year.

APPRECIATION.

The Acting Board desires to renew its expression of appreciation and gratitude to our church papers for their constant help in the effort to lift up the work of Home Missions. We are very greatly indebted to them, and desire to acknowledge the help that we have so constantly received.

We are grateful to our preachers who have loyally stood by this work, and presented an earnest claim before their congregations; to our superintendents of Sunday-schools, who have taken up Boys' and Girls' Rally Day with such interest and energy, and to many friends, who, by their personal offerings, their words of encouragement, and their loyal devotion, have assisted in the upbuilding of this great cause.

AN AGGRESSIVE CAMPAIGN.

Your Board is intending to continue its campaign of inspiration and education. Home Missions to the front, is still prophecy, but we hope to make it history. Young and old are to be appealed to in a direct way, personally, through correspondence, through conferences and conventions, with the hope that thousands of churches not yet enrolled, may come up to the help of the Lord against the mighty: we hope that churches already helping will become impatient of anything less than their best.

To stimulate our churches, your Board is planning to put them in touch with the field. We hope to distribute our literature more largely; to promote and provide Missions studies. We shall earnestly seek to increase the list of "our own mission churches," and we shall seek to inspire individuals to support their own home missions at the rate of $300 a year.

To succeed in this campaign of aggressive effort for Home Missions, we need the constant support of our papers, and the hearty co-operation of our preachers; we earnestly ask this help. We need the love and sympathy of our brethren and sisters, and we need your prayers, that the "Great Head of the Church" may continue his blessing as in the past.

This is truly the Lord's work—this preaching the gospel, winning souls, planting and supporting churches, winning America to Christ, that, through America, we may win the world to Christ. Truly this is the Lord's work, and, as such, let us enter it upon our knees and ask Him to use us for his own high purposes. Paul may plant, Apollos may water, but God giveth the increase. May we be willing to be used, and may the Lord use us to advance his glorious kingdom in America.

Respectfully submitted for the Acting Board of Managers.

BENJAMIN L. SMITH,
GEORGE B. RANSHAW,
Secretaries,

S. M. COOPER,
Chairman.

EVERY DISCIPLE SHOULD BE A REGULAR SUBSCRIBER TO THE AMERICAN HOME MISSIONARY. . . .

ADDENDUM TO THE GENERAL REPORT.

At the last meeting of the National Board of Directors, held at Omaha in 1902, the suggestion for a revival campaign of evangelism was made by H. O. Breeden, and heartily endorsed by the entire Board. A special committee of five was appointed, consisting of H. O. Breeden, Benjamin L. Smith, J. A. Lord, J. H. Garrison and B. B. Tyler, to inquire into the feasibility of the plan suggested, or to bring before the Board some general plan of campaign that would arouse a widespread revival among the churches, and result in a wider extension of the spirit of evangelism. While the various members of the committee have had the matter upon their minds during the year, no plan has thus far been evolved. Acting upon the suggestion of Bro. Breeden, the secretaries of the American Christian Missionary Society issued a letter to all preachers, calling upon them to interest their churches in a general revival of evangelism, and asking them to pledge themselves to hold at least one revival service during the year in their own churches, and to assist in at least one missionary protracted meeting besides. A number of churches responded to this suggestion, and meetings were held in various parts of the country; so that we are enabled to report a direct result of 597 such meetings held, resulting in 13,458 additions to the churches.

In view of the fact that this was the first attempt, and this only upon the crudest lines, we can not but believe that greater victories yet await those who will enter into this campaign with whole hearts. It should be clearly understood that this work was done merely at the suggestion of the A. C. M. S., and not as any part of the Home Mission work. The only cost involved was the price of the circular letters sent out, and that was very small.

The desire to win souls to Christ inheres in every Christian heart. The early history of our movement was characterized by a wonderful spirit of evangelism. The zeal for souls manifested by Barton W. Stone and his co-laborers in the great Cane Ridge meeting in Kentucky; of J. Secrist, Jacob Osborne, Walter Scott, John Smith, Samuel and John I. Rogers, made possible the broad and sure foundations of the Restoration Movement. To-day it has become a trite saying that the entire country is ripe for the harvest of souls as never before. Religious workers in every department have felt this for many months. The preaching of the gospel is the paramount issue before the church to-day. No other people is so well capable as we to undertake upon a mammoth scale the work of evangelizing America. We can accomplish more in any given field at less cost than any other religious body on the face of the earth. The results submitted to your consideration in the Annual Report will justify such a statement.

In view of these considerations, therefore, it has seemed to us wise to stir up the pure minds of the entire brotherhood by way of remembrance of its tremendous latent energies, of the increasing demands for the gospel, and of the necessity of moving at once.

In order to acquaint ourselves with what others are doing in this great line of work, the corresponding secretary made a visit to Winona Park, Ind., the headquarters of the Presbyterian Committee on Evangelism. While there, he made a thorough investigation of their plan of work, and gathered much data that will be of service in our future planning.

As is well known, a few years ago it was reported to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church that the work of soul saving had become sadly neglected, and the number of converts was pitifully small. At that time, Mr. T. H. Converse, president of the Baldwin Locomotive Works at Philadelphia. determined to make the work of evangelism his special task, and to this end he secured the appointment of a special committee of ten by the General Assembly to outline and to carry into effect a general plan for evangelization. Mr. Converse was made chairman of the committee. In due time the plan was formulated and put into operation, involving the following items:

1. Urging the need of evangelism and in planning campaigns.
2. Revival rallies held in the various cities.
3. Special visits to churches to revive them and help them with suggestions in methods; and the appointment of forty supplemental revivalists, whose salaries were to be supplemented by the Board.
4. Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman was made the special director of the evangelistic force.
5. Finance. Mr. Converse himself gave $25,000 a year to this work; $15,000 was received from a number of others, and no one gave less than $1,000.

Upon these general lines the campaign was carried on for the first year, and, as a result, there was a gain of 26,000 conversions over the record of the previous year. In the second year there was a gain of 26,280 conversions as compared with the reports of the first year.

This scheme of evangelism, conducted as it is by one of the most conservative religious forces in America, manned by the most cultivated and experienced preachers and laymen in the denomination, and arousing the church to a new realization of its strength and ability, has created a widespread interest among all religious bodies. During the summer, representatives of nearly all the leading religious bodies were present at various times at Winona, giving careful study to the plan and methods.

There is no question that America needs a revival of evangelism—a revival of New Testament Christianity. Who knows but that we are come into the kingdom for such a time as this?

Your secretaries anticipate with pleasure the report of your special committee appointed at Omaha, and desire to add their personal recommendation that the plan that shall be reported be carefully and prayerfully considered by your Board, and that some plan be agreed upon by which an immediate and widely spread campaign shall be begun and continued from year to year, until this shall be indeed and in truth Immanuel's land.

BENJAMIN LYON SMITH, GEORGE B. RANSHAW, Secretaries.

C. J. NEARE, Treas.

I certify that I have carefully examined the accounts of the bookkeeper and treasurer of the American Christian Missionary Society.

I have examined every order and check, have gone over the cash book, have confirmed every voucher, have examined and confirmed every note, bond and mortgage, and have received statement of the bank as to cash on hand.

I wish to testify to the very careful and accurate bookkeeping and certify that I have found the accounts to be correct in every respect.

A Conference on How to Raise Money for Missions was conducted by A. M. Harvuot, of Ohio.

Brief addresses were made in the Conference by E. J. Meacham, of Ohio; H. C. Garrison, of Kentucky; W. S. Buchanan, of Louisiana; S. T. Martin, of Ohio, and others.

Corresponding Secretary Benjamin L. Smith introduced the following missionaries of the Board: Z. O. Doward, Nebraska; J. P. Ralstin, California; J. H. Hardin, New England; B. H. Lingenfelter, Washington; T. W. Pinkerton, Utah; Claude L. Jones, Louisiana; O. P. Spiegel, Louisiana; G. T. Black, Indian Territory; E. M. Pardee, Porto Rico; W. M. Taylor, Southern Evangelist; W. J. Wright, Eastern Evangelist.

Geo. B. Ranshaw, for George Darsie, chairman, presented as the report of the Prayer Meeting Committee the list of topics for 1904.

The report was adopted.

J. H. Garrison, of Missouri, presented the following report of the Committee on the Louisiana Purchase Exposition. The report was adopted as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON EXHIBITS AT THE LOUISIANA PURCHASE EXPOSITION.

We, your Committee on the Louisiana Purchase Exposition Exhibit, submit the following report:

We believe it to be the duty of the church to avail itself of every opportunity afforded it in the providence of God for disseminating the light and the saving power of the gospel. It is not only the duty, but it is the part of wisdom for any religious movement, holding a dispensation of truth which the world needs, to utilize every great historical event which may be made the occasion for impressing its message on mankind.

The celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the Louisiana Purchase by a World's Fair, in the city of St. Louis, April 30 to November 30, 1904, which is to excel in its magnitude and scope any previous Exposition in the world's history, is an event that is attracting the attention and interest of all nations. It is destined to draw thither millions of people from all the peoples and countries of earth, and to record the highest mark yet reached in the world's material and intellectual progress. Why should it not exhibit also the highest and best conception of Christianity—the most perfect revelation of God, and the only universal religion? Since Christianity is the basis and inspiration of all that is best in our civilization, it would seem self-evident that it ought to have a prominent place in any Exposition which purports to be an exhibit of the world's progress. And yet in all that magnificent group of buildings which constitute the "Ivory City," some of which cover fourteen acres of space, there is not one dedicated to the religion of Him whose advent into the world has made all this progress possible. Nor is there any room in any one of these mammoth structures for an exhibit of tracts, pamphlets, books, etc., setting forth the teaching of Him for whom there was no room in the inn at Bethlehem when he was born. For this fact the Exposition authorities are not wholly, perhaps not chiefly, to blame, but it is the fact itself with which we have to reckon.

In view of this fact, it seems to your committee that a positive and aggressive type of Christianity, such as that represented by this Convention, ought to act independently, since it can not have the co-operation of others, in erecting on the Fair Grounds a unique but inexpensive building that would serve the double purpose of affording room for such an exhibit as we may be able to make, and serving as a sort of headquarters and bureau of information for brethren visiting the Fair. A reproduction of some historic building, such as Alexander Campbell's Study or the Cane Ridge Church, would attract attention because of its historical character, and need not be costly. Such a building, properly labeled and equipped with maps, charts, pictures of college and church buildings, and of the great historic leaders who under God inaugurated the movement and gave it its original impulse, together with tracts, leaflets, books, papers, etc., setting forth the history, principles and achievements of our Restoration Movement, would, we believe, prove to be a most profitable investment.

We, therefore, recommend that a committee of five be appointed by this Convention to plan for the erection of such a building, and to arrange such an exhibit, provided a sufficient amount of money be subscribed to warrant such an undertaking. And in no case are the expenditures for this purpose to create any debt against this or any other of our missionary societies. We think it would be wise to begin this subscription at this Convention.

J. H. GARRISON,
R. A. LONG,
F. E. UDELL,
Committee.

The President addressed the Convention on "The Church Face to Face with the Modern Spirit."

The session adjourned with prayer.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON.

The afternoon session opened at 2:30. W. F. Smith, of Kentucky, led the devotional service.

The report of the Board of Ministerial Relief was presented by Howard Cale, of Indiana. (A copy of this report can be had by addressing Howard Cale, Indianapolis, Ind.)

President Philputt having been called away by a telegram announcing the death of his brother, Charles, Vice-Pres. Burris A. Jenkins was called to the chair. The Convention received a telegram announcing the illness of Carey E. Morgan, of Kentucky. The suffering and bereaved ones were remembered in prayer, J. H. Garrison, of Missouri, leading.

In the absence of George Darsie his address on "An Unpaid Debt" was read by I. J. Spencer.

W. J. Russell, of Pennsylvania, presented the following:

J. H. Garrison presented the following:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CENTENNIAL.

Your committee appointed by the Minneapolis Convention in 1901 to consider and report upon a method of marking, in some suitable way, the completion of the first century of our history as a religious movement, made its report one year ago at the Omaha Convention. This report was approved, and the committee was made a standing committee to promote the carrying out of its recommendations, and to advise the Conventions annually of the progress which has been made.

The report, after mentioning reasons for celebrating in some worthy way such centennial, contained the following recommendations.

First, that our colleges make special efforts to increase their endowments and equipments, and that each college board fix the amount it will attempt to raise as a centennial offering and that the brotherhood be urged to respond to their appeals.

Second, that we make an effort to raise our missionary offerings, home and foreign, to one million dollars annually by the time of our centennial in 1909, including the offerings through the American Christian Missionary Society, the Foreign Christian Missionary Society, our State missionary societies and the Christian Woman's Board of Missions, and that the sum total of our contributions for religious, benevolent and educational purposes, local and general, be swelled to $10,000,000 by the time of our centennial.

Third, that our National Benevolent Association and other branches of our benevolent work plan for some definite extension of their benevolence, and that their claims be recognized by the brotherhood to the end that this neglected feature of our work be brought into line with our other general interests by the completion of our century of history.

Fourth, that our churches in the cities and elsewhere utilize this centennial occasion for the erection of memorial church buildings, and in the liquidation of church indebtedness.

Fifth, that we seek to inaugurate and carry forward a deeper and wider evangelism for the conversion of sinners, for the edification of our churches, and for pressing upon the consciences of men everywhere the demand of Christ for the unity of believers.

Sixth, that an annual report be made to this Convention, through a standing committee to be appointed for that purpose, of the progress made by each of these public enterprises in its centennial work, until the final report to the Convention in 1909.

Seventh, that our religious journals, which stand so closely related to all our public enterprises, be more generally patronized, that their usefulness may be proportionately increased in helping forward all our general interests.

Eighth, that at the National Convention next preceding that of the centennial year, a committee of representative brethren be appointed to prepare and publish in connection with the proceedings of our centennial Convention, a memorial to the Christian world, urging the importance of Christian unity in order to the world's evangelization and the extirpation of those evils which curse our Christian civilization.

Ninth, that our ministers and public teachers and our religious papers call our people to a truer exemplification of our high claims as restorers of a purer Christianity, by purer living; by a more earnest and systematic study of God's word; by habitual prayer, and by lives of such sacrifice and service as will realize, in some worthy measure, the high aims and ends which our fathers had in view in inaugurating the religious movement now rounding out a century of splendid history.

The first thing which your committee did was to have their report, of which the foregoing is but a synopsis, printed in convenient form for distribution. The expense of this publication was borne by the American Christian Missionary Society, Foreign Christian Missionary Society and Christian Woman's Board of Missions. In addition to this, attention has been called to different features of the report in our religious papers by members of the committee. We are glad to be able to report substantial progress in carrying out most of the recommendations contained in that report.

1. Most, if not all, of our colleges have fixed upon a definite sum which they are seeking to raise as endowment before the year 1909. Nearly all of our colleges, too, have made substantial additions to their endowment fund and to their equipment, amounting in the aggregate to not less than $140,000. Your committee can not too earnestly urge upon the brotherhood the importance of responding to these appeals from our colleges, and would recomment that our American Education Society aid the colleges as far as possible in this work, and that this Society in turn receive more general recognition and hearty co-operation on the part of the brotherhood in its most important work in stimulating interest in our educational enterprises.

2. It is highly gratifying to your committee to be able to report a distinct advance in every part of our missionary work during the past year. The American Christian Missionary Society has made a gain over the receipts of the previous year of $20,215. The Foreign Christian Missionary Society has increased its income over that of the previous year of $31,685. The Christian Woman's Board of Missions has made an increase in its general receipts, over those of the previous year, of $8,035. Church Extension has also scored a successful year, bringing its total receipts up to very near $400,000. Nearly all the State missionary societies report increased offerings for State work during the year just past. It would be safe to put the total increase of receipts from these various missionary organizations at $661,971. If this rate of increase be maintained until our centennial, we shall be able to more than realize our recommendations.

3. The National Benevolent Association, though one of the youngest of our national organizations, has moved forward with such rapid strides as to rival some of our older organizations in its annual receipts and expenditures. During the past year it has received, in cash contributions, bequests and annuities, the sun total of over $70,000, being an increase of $35,000 in cash receipts and about $8,000 in its assets over the record of the previous year. This does not include the work done by other orphanages not associated with it nor that of the Ministerial Relief Fund.

4. In many of our cities, notably in St. Louis and Kansas City, splendid church edifices are being planned to be completed within the next few years, and throughout the country there seems to be an effort, widespread, to pay off church debts. Our statistics on this subject are not complete, but, from such facts as we can gather, we believe it safe to say that not less than $250,000 of church indebtedness has been liquidated during the past year.

5. The year which has just closed has been marked by a large number of successful meetings, and the material increase of our membership, but much is to be desired yet in the way of a more systematic and concerted effort on the part of the churches in carrying forward an evangelistic campaign that will not only bring large numbers into the kingdom, but shall quicken and deepen the spiritual life of our churches.

6. Your committee can but renew with increased urgency its recommendation numbered "ninth" in our report of last year, relating to the importance of giving to the world a truer exemplification of our high claims as restorers of a pure Christianity. As a means looking to this end, we would urge the need of a revival of religion in the homes of our members and the religious instruction of our children. It is to be feared that there is widespread neglect of the religious training of children in our homes and such neglect can not fail to work out disastrous results both in church and state. Let us seek to restore that feature of primitive Christianity which laid upon parents the duty of bringing our children up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

Finally, as the time shortens for the accomplishment of the great work we have outlined, your committee feels the necessity of a more earnest co-operation on the part of all our organized agencies and of the brotherhood generally, in carrying out these recommendations. We recommend that the secretaries of our missionary organizations, of our Education Society and of our Benevolent Association take counsel together, and plan for an energetic prosecution of the tasks herein outlined. In order to do its work more effectively, your committee would ask authority to prepare, or have prepared, such literature as will be helpful in any department of our work, and to secure funds for the payment of the expense of such literature, either by securing appropriations from the various societies interested, or by soliciting direct contributions from the people for this purpose.

Congratulating the Convention and the brotherhood on the advance which has been made during the year now closing, and earnestly recommending increased zeal and effort on the part of all, while we fail not to invoke the divine blessing and guidance in our labors, we submit this report and these recommendations for your consideration and approval,

STATISTICAL REPORT.

The present year brought with it a great harvest for the Churches of Christ. While the laborers have been few, 101,789 souls have been taken into our churches. Of this number over 86,000 were brought to Christ, and near 15,800 came into the fellowship of our churches by letter. There have been 225 churches organized, which is far above the average number per annum. On account of a lack of proper organization and oversight, in both district and state mission work, our net gains are not as large as the above excellent results would indicate. Our net gains must be computed after deaths, losses by removals and lapses of membership have all been subtracted from the accessions to the churches from all sources. The growth of a religious body does not depend altogether on the number of additions to their ranks. The losses come in as a very important factor when we make our calculations of actual gains. This is for the present year as follows:

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Number churches | 10,857 | 10,983 | 126 |
| Number communicants | 1,187,377 | 1,220,841 | 33,464 |
| Number Bible schools | 8,171 | 8,355 | 184 |
| Number scholars, officers and teachers | 776,699 | 801,807 | 25,108 |
| Number ministers | 6,427 | 6,507 | 130 |

The receipts of our missionary societies show the most marked increase of any year in our history. The progress made during the past year clearly indicates that $1,000,000 per annum for missions by the Churches of Christ in the near future will certainly be realized. In order that this prediction may be fully appreciated, and that all the churches may redouble their diligence, we present to you the following table of the growth of this work:

| Year. | Number of Societies. | Amounts Contributed. |
|---|---|---|
| 1873 | One | $ 4,159 |
| 1880 | Three | 26,421 |
| 1885 | Three | 84,629 |
| 1890 | Three | 146,243 |
| 1895 | Three | 208,616 |
| 1900 | Three | 413,641 |
| 1900 | Three | 516,444 |

When we add to this the amounts contributed to our state mission boards it brings the whole amount up to $681,065 for the present year.

The growth in our large cities for the last decade has been equal to, if not greater than in, the rural districts, and is represented by the following table:

TEN YEARS' GROWTH.

| Name. | Number Churches. 1891 | 1902 | Number Members. 1891 | 1902 |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Buffalo | 1 | 4 | 300 | 1,107 |
| Chicago | 6 | 18 | 1,060 | 4,954 |
| Cincinnati | 7 | 14 | 2,072 | 2,314 |
| Cleveland | 5 | 9 | 1,800 | 3,000 |
| Covington and Newport | 4 | 9 | 885 | 1,850 |
| Des Moines | 3 | 8 | 1,500 | 5,200 |
| Kansas City | 6 | 14 | 2,199 | 4,600 |
| Lexington | 4 | 5 | 1,660 | 2,850 |
| Louisville | 9 | 11 | 3,300 | 4,172 |
| Los Angeles | 2 | 5 | 600 | 1,600 |
| Nashville | 7 | 14 | 2,000 | 3,600 |
| New York | 5 | 6 | 744 | 1,522 |
| Pittsburg | 8 | 18 | 1,494 | 4,545 |
| Richmond | 3 | 5 | 1,300 | 1,882 |
| St. Louis | 4 | 11 | 1,129 | 3,784 |
| Toledo | 2 | 4 | 178 | 790 |
| Washington | 1 | 4 | 600 | 2,050 |
| | 77 | 159 | 20,983 | 49,811 |

The great need of our cities at the present time is an evangelistic adviser, or superintendent, who may visit our cities and impart his faith, wisdom and hope to city churches. He would be worth many times the expense of such an agent.

The progress or gains of our missionary work for the present year is most commendable. In fact, the gains in all our benevolences show a marked increase, and the amounts by the various societies, institutions and churches are as follows:

MISSIONARY RECEIPTS.

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Foreign Christian Missionary Society | $210,009 | |
| Christian Woman's Board of Missions | 147,087 | |
| American Christian Missionary Society | 102,246 | |
| Board of Church Extension | 57,042 | |
| State and District Missions | 159,681 | |
| Miscellaneous Missions | 15,000— | $681,065 |

EDUCATION AND BENEVOLENCE.

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Buildings and Endowments of Schools | $250,000 | |
| Homes for Orphans, the Aged, etc | 82,000 | |
| Ministerial Relief | 7,000— | $339,000 |

LOCAL CHURCH WORK.

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Ministerial Support | $4,270,000 | |
| Incidental Church Expenses | 915,000 | |
| Church Buildings | 575,000 | |
| Church and Bible-school Literature | 345,000— | $6,115,000 |
| Total from All Sources | | $7,135,065 |

This is nearly $1,000,000 more than last year, and indicates that the church is partaking in the financial prosperity of the country.

In conclusion, allow us to state that the two great needs of the Disciples of Christ at the present time are, first, more adequate means for the education of our young men for the Christian ministry; and, second, a more liberal distribution of our distinctive literature, both in our own homes as well as in the homes of our neighbors. We thank God and take courage for the growth in most every department of the work among the churches, and pray the Lord to aid us in the proportionate advancements in these two branches of our work, also.

Fraternally submitted. G. A. HOFFMANN.

R. H. Waggener presented the following

REPORT OF THE NATIONAL SUPERINTENDENT OF CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Dear Brethren and Sisters of the Convention:—It is my pleasure to submit to this Convention my annual report as National Superintendent of our Christian Endeavor work.

The work I have been able to do the last year has been wholly according to my own plan, as I have been unable to get any records save the last annual report of our former superintendent.

At the beginning of the year, after consulting with a number of our leading brethren and workers, I decided to simplify the work as much as possible. It has not been my purpose to make the getting of money from our societies the chief thing; but, rather, to quicken them to a sense of their obligation to the church and their pledge.

I had not gone far into the work until I found that the societies were being appealed to with letters, circulars or personal solicitations from our secretaries for money. So I have asked for money for but one thing.

Many complaints have come to me from our young people as to the uses to which the societies were put for getting money. I fear mistakes have been made along this line of the work. There is something higher and better than this for our young people.

After twenty-one years, Christian Endeavor has become a very important part of the church work. It is no longer an experiment. The work of the societies is now being directed more and more by those who have had experience in this particular work.

The age question continues to be one of the chief difficulties in our work. No system of graduation or promotion has been suggested which seems to solve the problem, and I have none which I would now be willing to recommend. It remains with the church to take charge of the older Endeavorers and enlist and use them in its larger activities

As I see it a greater responsibility rests upon our ministers and churches to-day for the proper leading of our children than ever before. It is almost wholly in the hands of the minister to make of the Endeavor work what he would have it be.

The flush and excitement which were so manifest a few years ago, have passed away, and our leaders must give more thought to the real purpose and spirit of Christian Endeavor.

The movement is not growing in numbers in our own country as in former years, for the reason that nearly all the territory in this country had been worked prior to five years ago. And the enrollment of the Epworth League, B. Y. P. U., and other young people's organizations, is not counted with the Christian Endeavorers. It is now claimed that the combined membership of these societies is more than nine million. And, brethren, the church is responsible for their proper leadership. What a precious heritage and what an opportunity for real development in and of the church! The work is extending into all mission fields. Our missionaries see and know the wonderful help to be derived from the organized efforts of the young. Reports come continually of new societies being organized. This is especially true where our young ministers locate in the newer parts of our country, and where new churches are organized.

Some of our State presidents and secretaries report a lack of interest on the part of a goodly number of ministers, while others report hearty and active sympathy and help. I do not recall a case, known to me, in which the pastor of a church is making a large success of his work but that he is one of the leading and moving spirits in the young people's work.

During the year I have been in many States, attended all the State, district and county conventions possible. Have been on the programs, both in our own and union conventions, written thousands of letters, encouraged the workers and pastors wherever I could.

In all union C. E. work our young people stand at or near the very front. Our churches are always open to C. E. workers and meetings. Our national workers in the U. S. C. E. tell me of how ready they find our churches and ministers to co-operate.

From our Endeavor societies should come, almost wholly ,our supply of missionaries. The training they receive in this work eminently fits them with knowledge and enthusiasm for the work of the missionary. From our Endeavor ranks should and will come our ministry of the future, our elders, deacons, Bible-school superintendents and teachers. This is already being done, and will be more and more the case if we are careful to lead and train them. We must have even better trained men and women for our mission fields, and the Endeavor societies offer the best trained workers to be found in the church to-day.

At the Omaha Convention the Committee on Christian Endeavor recommended that $200 be appropriated out of the fund of the A. C. M. S., and placed at the discretion of the National Superintendent of Christian Endeavor, to be used to further our Christian Endeavor work.

During this year we have used $193.27 for stamps, stationery and stenographer. This money has been of great service, and we trust has been wisely used. It has enabled us to get in closer touch with the workers in the different States.

The traveling and other expenses of the National Superintendent in attending conventions and other meetings have not been paid from this fund, but out of his own funds, or, in some cases, in part by the Endeavorers.

THE FUTURE.

We should continue to urge the systematic study of the Scriptures, faithfulness to all departments of the local church work, and education along missionary lines.

I think it unwise for our societies to be urged to contribute to any one department of our missionary work to the exclusion of any other of our organized missionary interests. They must be instructed and kept in sympathy with every activity of the church.

We have no way of telling how much money is given to missions by the Endeavorers. The amount reported as given by them is but a very small part of what they give, as their offerings nearly all pass into the general church missionary treasury, and it is not known as Endeavor money. We have had cases reported to us where the majority of the money given to missions by the congregation was given by the members of the C. E. Society, and in many cases the direct cause of the older members of the church giving more liberally than usual has been the enthusiasm of the Endeavorers for missions and the heartiness with which they entered into the work.

Many of our societies are now either wholly or partly supporting missionaries or orphans in the foreign field.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

1. I would recommend the continuance of an appropriation of not less than $200 for the coming year, to be placed at the disposal of the National Superintendent for forwarding the work.

2. That the National Superintendent endeavor to have the cause of E. C. represented at as many county, district and State conventions as possible.

3. That a strong effort be made to have more of our young people attend our missionary conventions.

4. That our pastors be urged to assist in and encourage our organized young people's work in every possible way.

5. That our colleges be urged to keep the work of our young people constantly before the ministerial students, and do more to prepare them to become efficient leaders in this important work.

6. That active working societies be kept up in all of our colleges. Here, of all places, is where we should have the "Model" societies.

7. Because of the sore need of more ministers for our smaller churches, I would recommend that societies be urged to select from their membership promising and consecrated young men who may be induced to become ministers, and, where necessary, provide for their support while taking the ministerial course in one of our Bible Colleges.

I am convinced that hundreds of societies would gladly take up such a work if the matter were properly presented to them. What grander work could a society do than to take as its special work the education, for the ministry, of a noble young man who will give his life to the preaching of the gospel?

It has been difficult to secure correct statistics and reports from some States. The attached table will show the statistics as we have been able to gather them. But, brethren, we can not show, in a tabulated report, the growth in character, in consecrated hearts and lives, in spiritual development, which, after all, is the real growth, and upon which depends the approval of our heavenly Father.

CASH CONTRIBUTED BY OUR ENDEAVORERS TO OUR DIFFERENT DEPARTMENTS OF ORGANIZED WORK.

The amounts are given in round numbers as reported by the secretaries of the different Boards:

|---|---|
| Received for Porto Rico | $ 900 00 |
| Ministerial Relief (107 societies in twenty-one States) | 700 00 |
| National Benevolent Association | 200 00 |
| F. C. M. S. (the C. E. societies support 300 orphan boys; ten societies support native evangelists) | 7,000 00 |
| C. W. B. M. (from 242 Intermediate and 2,041 Junior societies in forty-six States, Territories and Provinces) | 10,500 00 |
| Church Extension | 100 00 |
| Total | $19 400 00 |

It is estimated that this is only about 10 per cent. of what is contributed by our Christian Endeavorers for all purposes in church work. Properly trained, the near future will give us dollars where we are now getting pennies from this same list. Surely, my brethren, this is an agency in our work to be reckoned with, and worthy of careful oversight. We earnestly ask the cordial support of our ministry in our efforts to develop them more rapidly into larger usefulness.

To your National Superintendent this has been a year full of joys and privileges The assurances of friendship for the work and willingness to help have been a source of constant encouragement. With the resources, the facilities and the time that were ours, and feeling more keenly than ever the great responsibility and the sacredness of the trust resting upon us, we have done our best, and submit our report trusting we have been able to touch some hearts and inspire them with a desire for a larger service, for Christ and the church.

With a grateful heart to our heavenly Father for his blessings and guidance, thankful to my brethren for their confidence and with a higher appreciation of the value and importance of our organized young people's work, and full of confidence in my brethren that they will provide larger and yet larger things for this work in the future, I am,

Very fraternally yours,

TUESDAY EVENING.

The Convention met in two sections. At the Woodward Avenue Baptist Church the devotional service was conducted by P. Y. Pendleton, of Ohio.

Hon. T. W. Phillips, of Pennsylvania, was introduced, and briefly addressed the Convention.

Adresses were delivered by W. F. Richardson, of Missouri, on "The Upper Room;" and by James Small, of Indiana, on "Evangelization: How Preach Jesus Christ to this Age?"

At the Central Methodist Church, Charles Darsie, of Ohio, led the devotions.

Geo. W. Muckley delivered an address on "Greater Things for Church Extension;" S. M. Martin, of Missouri, spoke on "Evangelization: Our Glory and Our Hope," and conducted a conference on evangelization.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 21.—MORNING.

T. J. Legg, of Indiana, led the devotions.

J. H. Goldner, of Ohio, presented the following:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Your Committee on Christian Endeavor beg leave to submit the following report:

We recognize the Christian Endeavor Society as having passed the experimental stage, and as being an essential factor in the work of the church. It has proven itself to be most efficient in the development of the spiritual life of the young, and in the enlistment of them in the practical work of the church.

Your committee would therefore recommend the following:

First. We recommend the continuance of an appropriation of not less than $200 for the coming year, to be placed at the disposal of the national superintendent for advancing the work.

Second. We urge the importance of encouraging the growth of the Christian Endeavor movement among us, both in the enlargement of existing organizations and in the formation of new ones in the more than six thousand of our congregations which have none.

Third. We recommend that the Christian Endeavor principle and purpose be presented as fully as possible in all our conventions, national, state, county and district, and that the national superintendent make an earnest effort to secure such presentation.

Fourth. We recommend that our colleges in the training of young men for the ministry give attention to the instruction necessary to make our ministers efficient organizers and leaders of young people in the practical work of the church.

Fifth. Appreciating the urgent need of enlisting suitable young men in the work of the ministry in our smaller as well as our larger churches, we recommend that our societies, under the direction of the pastors, induce able, consecrated and promising young men to prepare for the ministry, and, wherever necessary, provide as far as possible for their support while engaged in making the needed preparation.

Sixth. While recognizing the value of all the activities engaging our Christian Endeavor societies, we urge the supreme importance of systematic Bible study and a thorough acquaintance with the subject of missions. To this end, we emphatically recommend the organization of classes for the study of the Bible and missionary literature. We commend the effort made to introduce special missionary libraries among our young people.

Seventh. Feeling the need of a new awakening in our churches to spiritual things, and the responsibility of our Christian Endeavor societies to promote it, we recommend that, in accordance with the request of the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, Tuesday, the first day of December, be set apart as a day of united and individual prayer for such revival of religious zeal; and that our Christian Endeavor societies strive in every way to make this awakening widespread and permanent in its effects so that the prevailing worldliness and indifference may be counteracted, and that multitudes may be converted and brought into our churches and enlisted in whole-hearted service and outspoken devotion.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM.

The Committee on Evangelism, appointed by the Board of Managers of the American Christian Missionary Society, at Omaha, in 1902, having pondered the matter for a year, has reached the conclusion that the time has come in the history of our movement for the evangelization of a campaign of organized evangelism as a distinct and definite activity of the brotherhood. Too long, indeed, has this fundamental interest of the church been neglected. In harmony with the suggestion first made at Minneapolis, and repeated at Omaha, of our Evangelistic Board, with methods and functions similar to existing boards among us, we heartily recommend the creation by this Convention of an Evangelistic Board of nine members, whose sole function shall be the promotion of evangelism among the Churches of Christ.

That its equipment shall consist of at least one paid secretary, who shall devote his energies to this work, holding evangelistic rallies at important centers, soliciting pastors to hold meetings as they may be able in weak places, etc.

That an Evangelistic Bureau shall be organized and maintained, where the names of all evangelists and evangelistic singers shall be kept on file, and to which churches may apply for efficient evangelistic helpers.

That an adequate supply of choice evangelistic literature be kept in this bureau, of tracts, leaflets, books and booklets, at the command of the brotherhood, both for sale and gratuitous distribution.

That a summer school of methods in evangelism be held at some strategic point, which shall gather the evangelists of the brotherhood for conference as to plans, methods, exchange of ideas, etc.

As to resources: we recommend that an appeal be made at once through our press, and prosecuted with vigor by our secretary, for funds with which to inaugurate and carry on an effective evangelistic campaign through the Board of Evangelism.

We regard with highest favor the salutary work done last year in this department of service by the Acting Board. We recommend to the Convention the appointment of a committee to nominate nine members of the new Board.

W. E. Garrison, of Missouri, presented the report of the Committee on Place, as follows:

Your Committee on Place respectfully recommends that the Convention of 1904 be held in the city of St. Louis.

W. E. GARRISON, Committee.

F. W. Norton, of Indiana, presented the following:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

Be it Resolved:

1. That we give expression to our gratitude to our heavenly Father for the signal success that has attended our missionary efforts for the past year, both at home and abroad.

We rejoice in the attainment of the goal set by the American and Foreign Societies, in the large measure of progress made in the work of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions, and in the hope of the speedy consummation of the special effort for the Burgess Memorial Fund.

We take unselfish pride in the steady advancement of all our enterprises, missionary, educational and benevolent, that make for the extension of the kingdom of God.

We note with pleasure the disposition to plan for larger and more definite works in the American and foreign fields.

We recognize with approval the earnest and untiring efforts of the secretaries of our various Boards, and pledge our co-operation with them in the labors of the future.

2. With profound sorrow we remember the prolonged illness of our beloved sister, the devoted secretary of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions, Mrs. Helen E. Moses, and unite in the expression of our sympathy for her and our prayer to God for her recovery.

3. We record our appreciation of the unremitting efforts of our brethren in Detroit, under the leadership of Bro. C. J. Tannar, and the business management of Bro. A. E. Jennings, in providing such ample and suitable arrangements for the holding of this great Convention, and their fidelity and courage in facing and overcoming difficulties presented by the partial destruction of their church by fire.

4. We acknowledge most gratefully the gracious spirit of brotherly love shown by the Woodward Avenue Baptist Church, the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, and the Woodward Avenue Congregational Church, in tendering the use of their church buildings for the convenience of the Convention, and in opening their pulpits to our ministry with cordial invitation.

5. We express appreciation of the kindly hospitality shown by the citizens of Detroit in opening their houses for our entertainment, and for all courtesies extended in public and private which have added to the pleasure of our sojourn here.

We acknowledge the favors shown by the railroads in reduction of fares and special facilities for transportation, and the courteous treatment accorded by the press in reports of our meetings.

6. In view of the need of more laborers in both the home and foreign fields, we recommend that on special days set apart for the presentation of mission work, the appeal be also made for the offering of the lives of our ablest and best equipped and most consecrated young people for this great work.

7. Believing that the value of child education and training has not yet been fully recognized by the church, we urge that greater and more systematic efforts be made to secure the regular attendance of children in Bible-schools, and that arrangements for more efficient instruction be provided in the churches. Furthermore, that mission Bible-schools be established wherever practicable, with a view to future church organizations.

8. We recognize in the liquor traffic an enemy of the home, the church and the state, and record our unceasing opposition to it and our unalterable determination to use all honorable means to secure its complete destruction.

9. We view with grave concern the remarkable phenomena presented in all sections of our Christian land by the taking of human life without due process of law. We avow our unqualified condemnation of the mob spirit as demoralizing, degrading and brutalizing in its effect on the community, and as a misdirected effort to secure justice, and so failing in the very end sought. We recommend to the lovers of law and order and justice everywhere a careful and dispassionate study of this great problem under the light of the gospel, with a view to arousing and directing public sentiment, and also securing such legislative enactments and such enforcement of the law as may remove, if possible, all excuse for such conduct, and save our fair land from this disgrace.

10. We deplore the manifest growth of the gambling spirit, both in the social and commercial life of our country. We recommend that our ministers, and others having the spiritual oversight of our churches, give careful instruction and guidance to their members on this subject, in order that they may be saved from the insidious approaches of this deadly evil.

11. We have heard with delight, during the sessions of this Convention, the report of the Alaskan Boundary Commission granting to the United States a large area of new territory in the Northwest, abounding in its natural resources, and pledge this Convention to establish a mission in that field as soon as possible, and as our country expands we enlarge our missionary work.

12. We reaffirm the recommendation of the Convention of 1902 that the Convention of 1905 be held on the Pacific Coast.

F. W. NORTON, J. H. HARDIN,
MRS. A. M. HARRISON, Committee.
